Majority On U.N. Council Supports Dag; Pro-Lumumba Mobs Riot In 2 U.S. Cities

Rioters Aim Protests At UN, Belgium

Several Arrested On New York City And Washington Streets

NEW YORK (AP)—Demonstrations against United Nations and Belgian policies in the Congo and in protest against the slaying of Patrice Lumumba erupted on the streets of New York City and Washington, D.C.

The demonstrations — Wednesday and Wednesday night — followed the riotous scenes in United Nations headquarters in which two score persons were injured.

Most of the street demonstrators were Negroes. Several arrests were made.

In Manhattan mounted police broke up a march toward Times Square early in the evening by Negro demonstrators chanting "Congo, yes! Yankee, No!"

Several in the crowd were knocked down before it was dispersed.

Later at a street meeting in Harlem a number of speakers called for unity among Negro nationalist groups. Among them was Benjamin Davis Jr., Negro national secretary of the Communist party and a former New York City councilman.

In Washington Wednesday, police hauled away 25 Negro demonstrators after they had yelled for half an hour and had thrown snowballs and eggs at the Belgian embassy. They were protesting the slaying of Lumumba, former Congo premier. Officials said Communists stirred up the disorder.

The picketing which started outside United Nations headquarters here after the wild demonstration in the Security Council chamber appeared to be dominated by members of the United African Nationalist Movement and their sympathizers. They turned away white persons who wanted to join the picketing. And when Davis tried to join, they also turned him away. Davis later joined a group of largely white pickets on a nearby street.

Mounted and foot patrolmen of the city police swung into action as demonstrators—forced out of the U.N. building—threw rocks and snowballs at U.N. guards. Three Negroes were arrested and were given suspended sentences when they pleaded guilty in court to charges of disorderly conduct.

Pro-Lumumba Soldiers Beat 12 Europeans

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Twelve Europeans, including a woman and a 5-year-old child, were seized and beaten by rebellious Lumumba soldiers in Kivu Province today, the United Nations reported.

When they were released after a few hours' detention, tl.e U.N. spokesman said, one of the men had a broken arm.

The incident was another of the isolated outbreaks of violence clouding the atmosphere of the Congo following the death of ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba, announced Monday.

A company of Congolese soldiers appeared yesterday at the airport in Stanleyville, the Lumumba stronghold, insisting that a plane full of Belgian paratroopers was about to land.

Three Belgian priests were reported attacked by small bands of Lumumba partisans in the African sector of Leopoldville Wednesday night. One of them, identified as Father Joseph Stulens, was overpowered by three tribesmen and knifed.

In outbreaks so far there has been no evidence of planning or organization and acts of irate individuals have been persistently condemned by government and army authorities.

Warns Soviet On Congo

Kennedy Pumps More Money Into Nation's Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, hitting back at those who contend there is no recession, is pumping more federal money into the economy to combat "the very serious problem of unemployment."

The President sized up the problem in those terms at his news conference Wednesday night while thrusting at Republican criticism of his efforts to spur business and reduce joblessness. He also prodded the Democratic-controlled Congress—moving slowly so far—to act speedily on his legislative program designed, he said, to get the American economy "back on its feet."

Kennedy dealt at some length with this domestic situation, and also served notice on the Soviet Union to desist from any one-sided intervention in the internal affairs of the strife-scarred Congo.

And the President, again with Soviet Union clearly in mind, asserted that any attempt to destroy the United Nations in the Congo crisis "is a blow aimed directly at the independence and security of every nation, large and small."

He pledged the United States "will continue to support the United Nations' presence in the Congo," and said a U. N. pull-out there—such as demanded by the Soviet Union—would add up to disaster.

Kennedy said further this country considers the government set up under Joseph Kasavubu as president "is the only legal authority entitled to speak for the Congo as a whole." Both the Soviet Union and the United Arab Republic have recognized the Stanleyville-based regime headed by pro-Communist Antoine Gizenga, a supporter of deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba, whose assassination touched off the new crisis.

As for the domestic economy, Kennedy said the country is "most concerned about the very serious problem of unemployment." There are, he said, more than 5.5 million Americans who

2 Robbers Bind Man, Take $180

Substation Victim Unharmed But Pair Threatens With Gun

A 64-year-old Substation area man was robbed of $180 at gunpoint early today by two thugs who grabbed him as he entered his car on the way to work, forced him back into his house and left him bound hand and foot.

William Miller of the Substation Rd. was unharmed by the holdup, but was threatened by one of the young men. When he attempted to seize the gun the bandit said he would " 'blow your head off if you don't let go.' "

The sheriff's department, investigating the crime, alerted district police for the bandits, both about 20, who left the cottage on foot, but probably had a car nearby.

Miller said he was on his way to work at the Porcelain Division of the Ferro Corp. in the East End, and was entering his car when one, waiting in the back seat, shoved the gun in his face. He placed the time at 6:20 a. m.

Miller, a widower, said he grabbed at the weapon but was warned to release it. The other man came up to the side of the car and he was forced back to the house and told to enter.

" 'Hurry up, hurry up,' " he was told as he fished out his keys and worked to unlock the front door.

The one who continued to hold the gun in his face, had an orange color jersey pulled up over his face. Miller said it was dark but both kept their faces averted and tried to keep him turned away from them.

They took his wallet and also fished some money out of his watch pocket, leading him to believe they were familiar with his habits.

The pair made him get down on the floor and bound his hands and feet with plastic clothesline. They did not turn on any lights, working in the darkness. Miller said they discussed ripping out the telephone, but were reluctant to turn on lights to find it.

Nothing else in the home was touched and they left by the front door, walking away. Miller said he did not hear a car.

When bound upon the floor, Miller protested he didn't think he could lie in that position, so the one thug leaned him against a davenport. Miller said both were "polite" in that respect.

Miller managed to free one hand, reached a knife and cut himself loose. He then phoned his son, William Miller Jr. of Glenmoor. When he arrived, they notified the sheriff's office, police constable and East Liverpool police.

Miller, describing the pair as a "couple of young punks," said they were in his home about 15 minutes.

He said the gun held at his face during the ordeal, was a small one, perhaps .22-caliber or .32-caliber, but he could not tell for sure because of the darkness.

His wallet was found on the floor afterward, and nothing else in the house was taken.

The police description listed the pair at 5-feet-4 and 5-feet-6, one with a white sweatshirt and the other with an orange scarf.

Chief Defies Red Demand Of Dismissal

U.N. Guards Take Precautions Against New Demonstrations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold had the support of a majority of the U.N. Security Council today for his defiance of Soviet demands for his dismissal.

Several African or Asian countries were slated to take a stand for or against the embattled secretary-general in the continuation of the council's Congo debate today. Their position was likely to be crucial since Hammarskjold said he would resign only if that was the wish of the "uncommitted nations," a term generally applicable to the Asian and African members.

U.N. guards took precautions to prevent a repetition of the riotous Negro demonstrations during Wednesday's council debates, in which 41 persons were injured. A speaker at a rally Wednesday night in Harlem exhorted the crowd to be at the U.N. again today and declared:

"Tomorrow the cops won't get us to run. We'll show these gestapo police who we are."

Six of the 11 council members backed up Hammarskjold Wednesday when he told Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin he would not resign. They were the United States, Turkey, Nationalist China, France, Chile and Britain.

Since any resolution needs seven votes for adoption, their stand doomed a Soviet resolution to have the council call for Hammarskjold's dismissal as "a participant in and organizer of "the killing of Patrice Lumumba, deposed premier of the Congo.

Zorin introduced the resolution Wednesday, following up a statement by his government that it would no longer recognize or deal with Hammarskjold as secretary-general because, the Soviets said, he had Lumumba's blood on his hands.

The resolution also sought sanctions against Belgium, the arrest of anti-Lumumba Congolese leaders, disarming of their troops, ouster of all Belgians from the Congo and the ending of U.N. operations in the chaotic African country within a month.

Hammarskjold told the council that the Soviet charge against him was a "preposterous allegation" and a maneuver to accomplish Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal of last Oct. 3 that he be replaced by a Western-Communist-neutralist triumvirate.

The secretary-general said that normally if the Soviet Union or another permanent member of the council withdrew its confidence in him, he would resign.

But he said that if he resigned now, "no new secretary-general could be appointed (because of the Soviet veto), and the world would have to bow to the wish of

3 Red-Leaning Nations Back Congo Rebels

Line Up With Soviet And Lumumbists In Support Of Gizenga

LONDON (AP)—More Communist and pro-Lumumbist nations today were lining up with the Soviet Union behind the rebel Congo government of Antoine Gizenga.

Yugoslavia, Ghana and Indonesia—outside the Soviet orbit—announced recognition of the rump regime in Stanleyville along with East Germany, Czechoslovakia, Red China, North Viet Nam and Outer Mongolia. The United Arab Republic was the first to give formal recognition.

Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio said his government had sent a cable to the Congo, recalling its 1,150 troops with the U.N. force "as soon as possible."

President Kennedy told a news conference Wednesday night that the United States considers President Joseph Kasavubu's government in Leopoldville the "only legal authority entitled to speak for the Congo as a whole."

Patrice Lumumba in death stirred more widespread demonstrations than he had in life. Fist-swinging outbursts spread even into the chamber of the U.N. Security Council in New York.

The Soviet Union kept up a drumfire campaign to make Lumumba the martyr, U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold the villain and to get U.N. forces out of the Congo.

Vote In House Is Assured On Jobless Bill

Action On Extender Set Next Week After Committee's Move

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A House vote next week on a bill to extend jobless pay was assured early today when the Ohio House Industry and Labor Committee reported an emergency measure to the House floor.

The committee considered half a hundred proposed amendments during a marathon session of more than five hours. All but the Republican amendments were beaten back on a strictly party-line vote.

Even some of the Democratic leaders who opposed GOP-inspired changes in the benefits law which they regard as "crippling" were unhappy with the five-hour-plus committee session.

One Democratic leader, who asked not to be identified, growled:

"We shouldn't have tried to take them (the Republicans) off the hook. We should have let them make the bill as rotten as they wanted to. Then there would have been no question at all why the Democrats will oppose it."

Republicans control the Industry and Labor Committee 11-6. The final vote on recommending the bill to the House floor was 11-6.

Republican House Speaker Roger Cloud, who sat through the seemingly endless committee session, told newsmen he hopes the bill can be passed through the House and sent to the Senate either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

More Crowded Each Year

Entrance Exam Proposed For 6 State Universities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A move to make it tougher to gain admission to Ohio's six state universities has been started in the Ohio Senate.

The proposal by Sen. David McK. Ferguson, R-Guernsey, is a recognition of the fact that the state institutions of higher learning are becoming more crowded each year.

Ferguson wants to authorize the universities to require a prospective student to pass a written examination before admittance. Under present law, any graduate of an Ohio high school must be accepted by state universities.

One result of the present law calling for automatic admissions has been a high rate of flunk-outs by freshmen.

Another important development in the Senate as legislators prepare to wind up their seventh work week was submission, with strong bipartisan support, of a constitutional amendment which would give the Senate the right to fill vacancies in its own ranks.

The proposal came from Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, former minority leader Joseph W. Bartunek, D-Cuyahoga, and Sen. John W. Brown, R-Medina, former interim governor.

The constitution now calls for the governor to call elections to

The trial began Tuesday in Common Pleas Court.

Intruder Uses Phone To Find Family Absent

Tire Stolen, Youth Held As Shoplifter In Other City Thefts

A burglar who checked repeatedly by telephone until finding the family absent obtained $36 in cash, jewelry worth over $100 and some old U. S. coins and foreign currency in the ransacking of a Grant St. home Wednesday afternoon, police reported.

The intruder looted the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorhman Treadway, 347 Grant St., also taking property of Orion Simpson, Mrs. Treadway's father, who resides at the same address.

The loss included $30 in $1 bills, a glass bank containing $6 to $8 in pennies, a woman's yellow gold wristwatch worth $40, a watch owned by Simpson worth $60, Simpson's collection of old U.S. nickels, dimes and pennies, a wallet full of French currency that Simpson brought home from overseas in World War II and a man's tie clasp and cufflinks.

Mrs. Treadway said the home was entered between 12:45 and 2:30 p. m. yesterday while she was at an automatic laundry and her husband and her father were at work.

The burglar checked repeatedly at the home via telephone over a period of about three weeks in an effort to find the house empty, Mrs. Treadway said. On each occasion, no one answered when she picked up the phone, she said. The last of the mysterious phone calls were received yesterday morning.

Mrs. Treadway said the home may have been entered with a house key which was in a purse she lost last year. The purse also contained identification that would

Snow Flurries, Colder To 'Chase' Springtime

With spring still officially a month away, the Ohio weatherman decided today East Liverpool had enough of a foretaste of the season and ordered a return to winter temperatures.

There will be rain or snow tonight changing to snow flurries as temperatures dip by Friday. Flurries will continue tomorrow. Dam 7 at Midland had a frosty overnight low of 31 degrees after a mild high of 51 yesterday afternoon.

Meanwhile, the Ohio River continued falling today after a 4-foot rise occasioned by melting of snow on the watershed. V. C. Houghton, chief river forecaster for the U. S. Weather Bureau at Pittsburgh, said continuation of the thaw and a lot of rain could create a flood threat but "right now that is dormant". The new cold spell should slow the thaw and little rain is in sight.

West Virginia Gets Pledge Of Economic Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has assured Gov. W. W. Barron his economic program would help West Virginia. Barron told Kennedy the state would do its part. And the governor reported back to West Virginians he is encouraged.

The encouragement is the result of day-long conferences Wednesday with Kennedy and two members of his cabinet, Orville Freeman, agriculture secretary, and Abraham Ribicoff, secretary of health, education and welfare.

Barron said the President indicated a desire to visit West Virginia, commenting the state helped put him in the White House.

The governor outlined steps the state has taken to relieve the stress of wholesale unemployment. Kennedy expressed keen interest in those efforts, Barron said.

Barron also said Ribicoff showed interest in the state's medical care program for the hard-up aged. The governor said, however, the state must provide some $4 million for the program and getting the money is hard.

The Agriculture Department was asked to step-up movement of more surplus foods to warehouses being opened in Williamson and Bluefield.

West Virginia Fire Kills 3 Young Brothers

SPENCER, W. Va. (AP) — A rural tragedy south of here Wednesday snuffed out the lives of three young brothers.

They died and their father was seriously burned when fire levelled their farm home in the Ambler Ridge area, west of U.S. 119 and about 23 miles south of Spencer.

New Sewage Rate Proposed For Chester

State Urges Use Of Water Fees To Set Disposal Charges

The need for a new rate ordinance for Chester's planned sewage disposal system was reported at a meeting of Council Wednesday night.

Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner read a letter from the Public Service Commission, suggesting that the city base the proposed sewage rates on the number of gallons of water used by metered customers with a flat rate for customers without meters.

Council last year approved a rate of 110 per cent of the water bills under a plan submitted by the Sanitary Board. However, the PSC did not receive the rate application, and has subsequently indicated a percentage rate is not favored by the state, apparently because the town is not completely metered.

It was suggested Mayor Ray Collins call a joint meeting of the Sanitary Board and Council so plans for the proposed project may be reviewed and preparations made for again seeking a federal loan.

Mrs. Turner said June 4 is the deadline for filing application for federal aid for 1962. A previous application was rejected last year.

Two types of meters — Rockwell and Badger — were shown by Councilman W. F. Bishop, chairman of the water committee, and were explained by Jess Selmon of the water dpartment.

Council took no action on recom-

200 Hear Bank President

City Must Meet Changes, Chamber's Speaker Says

Communities as well as nations must adjust to jet-age changes in conditions that affect the economy if they want to move into the future confidently, James J. Nance, president of the Central National Bank of Cleveland, told a crowd of 200 Wednesday night at the annual dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Nance, drawing on years of experience as a top executive in the auto and appliance industries, told the audience at the Country Club that the "violence of change" in world and domestic conditions is accelerating yearly and those who would survive must keep pace with it.

He cited five principal changes—in the national economy, in world markets, in the nation's work force, in communications and in transportation.

"The ways in which free enterprise must operate are different and not fully understood," Nance declared. "One thing is clear, however. Change no longer can be avoided. Whether you manage a major industry or neighborhood grocery store, whether you live in a vast urban complex or a small crossroads village, the basic frontiers of our economy are on the move and will continue to move with greater and greater velocity for as long as we can see."

The principal change in the na-

Bid Accepted For Stratton

Project For Water, Sewers Is $296,000

Stratton Council, at a special meeting Wednesday night, voted to accept a lower bid offered by the A. P. O'Horo Construction Co. of Youngstown for installation of new water and sewer systems.

It probably will be at least 30 days before a contract is signed. This will give the village time to raise the needed money.

The O'Horo bid is approximately $296,000. The firm's original bid was $333,760.30, but this was lowered through negotiations with the firm of Ballard Mayfield of Canton, consulting engineers for the village.

In voting to deal with O'Horo, Council eliminated the Hatcher Brothers Co. of Mingo, which bid $338,246. Hatcher also adjusted its bid figure, but not as much as O'Horo.

Mayor Michael Misconish said the needed money will be raised by borrowing on a note basis. Council will meet in regular session Tuesday at 7 p. m.

West Firemen Plan Auction

Liverpool Township West volunteer firemen met Wednesday evening in the LaCroft fire station and set an auction sale for March 22.

Milton Kountz, ways and means chairman, will be in charge. Anyone desiring to donate items may call Homer Cronin at FU. 6-6115 or Chalmer Gifford at FU. 5-4710.

Fred Fryman, secretary, presided with 21 firemen attending. A check for $59.60 was reported received from the East Liverpool Board of Education for enumeration of children in the district.

Firemen are puchasing property in back of the fire station that will add room for their carnivals.

Two lanterns for the emergency truck were ordered purchased from the Mannweiler Co. of Massillon at a total cost of $21. Kenneth Gordon Delaney was accepted as a second class fireman.

Firemen will attend a meeting of the Tri-State Firemen's Association Monday at 8 p. m. at the Wellsville fire station. Cronin is president and Fryman secretary of the association.

Firemen will meet next Wednesday for a training session at 7 p. m. at the station. Next regular meeting is March 1.

Wetzel, Bettis Co-Sponsor Bill On Truck Signals

Columbiana County's representatives co-sponsored a bill in the General Assembly Wednesday to permit disabled trucks and buses to use reflectors as warning signals on highways.

Present law requires either flares or electric lanterns.

The bill, introduced by Rep. Clarence Wetzel and Rep. J. Warren Bettis, would establish the same distance and number requirements for the red reflectors as for the flares and lanterns.

It specifies, however, that the reflectors would have to comply with standards established by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Underwriters' Laboratories.

Sen. Edmund Sargus of St. Clairsville co-sponsored a bill giving binding contract status to agreements between two or more school districts to hire teaching specialists jointly.

Sargus said present law permits such agreements, but makes no provision for holding the parties to the agreements. Consequently, one school district may withdraw from the arrangements without the consent of the others, leaving the latter with the responsibility for fulfilling the obligation, he said.

LaCroft Motorist Hurt In Collision

A 31-year-old LaCroft motorist was injured when his station wagon was struck by a truck on Route 30 in California Hollow Wednesday afternoon at 2:50 p. m.

Robert J. Palmer of Densmore Ave. suffered a neck and back injuries in the mishap, and was treated at City Hospital and released.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Palmer, headed south, had stopped to make a turn and his 1960 station wagon was rammed from behind by a 1956 truck operated by William R. Wright, 65, of Chester R. D. 1, causing considerable damage to both vehicles.

Wright was fined $10 and costs today in Municipal Court by Judge Samuel Chertoff for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Midland Republicans Advance Primary Plans

Midland Republicans met Wednesday evening to continue work on a slate and other preparations for the May 16 primary in which 11 borough offices will be up for nominations.

Three who will seek nominations to Council include Reider, Hugo Oberg and Will T. Leavell.

Candidates, committeemen, committeewomen and party workers will meet next Wednesday at 9 p. m. in the Margaret Boston Agency in the First National Bank Building.

Legislature

fill legislative vacancies, but this seldom has been done because of the expense involved.

The proposal provides that a senator could be appointed by a majority vote of the Senate if it has a quorum present. This, sponsors said, is a recognition of the fact that catastrophe or enemy attack could decimate the Senate ranks to a point where the upper chamber would find it almost impossible to operate.

Every member so appointed, the proposal provides, would be of the same political faith as that of the member he replaced.

Unloading their brief cases Wednesday before their weekend recess, lawmakers introduced 56 bills. Among them were measures to:

Repeal a 1959 law placing the attorney general in third spot on Ohio ballots and return him to the sixth slot.

Outlaw the use of trading stamps.

Require notification to drivers 30 days before expiration of licenses.

Create a state board to license radio and television repairmen.

Qualify state and local public employes for unemployment compensation.

Create a domestic relations court in Wood County.

Set a statewide minimum salary standard for teachers to provide $300 increases in most training categories and provide for minimum yearly salary raises that would increase state assistance to Ohio school districts by nearly $25 million a year.

Prohibit liquor advertising signs within view of a highway on newly acquired rights of way.

Permit two or more school districts to employ jointly certain supervisory teachers and teachers in special fields.

Give statutory status to Italian-American War Veterans of U.S.

Allow disabled trucks and buses on highways to use warning reflectors.

Transfer care and treatment of crippled children from Welfare to Health Department.

Provide special classes at state expense for emotionally disturbed children.

Remove the present restriction limiting the salary of a municipal court clerk to that of the county clerk.

Permit counties to cooperate with other governmental agencies in water management programs.

Require votes by armed service families to be case in the precinct in which they lived before entering service.

Each house passed two bills.

The House passed and sent to the Senate bills revising penalties for failure to transfer auto license plates and to permit all parties to agree to a journal entry of settlement in will contest actions.

The Senate passed and sent to the House bills to spell out the rights and powers of deposit guaranty associations and to correct errors and plug loopholes in laws concerning the filing of incorporation papers with the secretary of state.

About 140 attended the "Family Night" dinner at the Grace United Presbyterian Church Wednesday with the Board of Deacons and Deaconesses in charge.

A devotional hour followed in the sanctuary and slides were screened on "The Opening Up of the Old Testament." The Rev. Edward John Phinn was narrator.

The group participated in hymn singing with Mrs. Hazel Rose pianist.

A large class of new communicants joining the church at Easter was present.

The dinner was planned by Mrs. Lillie Clemenson, Mrs. J. W. Barrett and Mrs. W. C. Waggle, assistant by members of Pairs and Spares group.

Crash Driver Gets $25 Fine

Frank K. Lowry, 51, of 204 W. 2nd St., whose car hit the rear of a disabled tractor-trailer Saturday night on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road," was fined $25 and costs today when Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff convicted him of failure to stop within the assured clear distance.

Lowry pleaded "no contest," but argued that Percy M. Gary, 29, of Columbiana did not put out flares to warn approaching traffic after halting his big rig in the traffic lane. He said he did not see the rig until too late to avoid the crash.

Officer M. R. Darrah of the State Highway Patrol testified the tractor-trailer driver set out a pot torch and a flare to mark the disabled vehicle and switched on the clearance lights and turn signals. A check showed the truck was visible from a distance of two-tenths of a mile, he testified.

Lowry and a woman passenger, Shirley Young, 26, of Pittsburgh, were injured in the crash. Questioned by the judge, Lowry denied drinking prior to the crash, but the patrolman disputed his statement.

Meanwhile, Robert J. Smith, 301 Maplewood Ave., forfeited a $32.50 bond on a reckless driving charge. He was cited at 12:50 this morning, police said.

Task Started To Identify Crash Victims

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — American and Belgian officials today began the tragic task of trying to identify 73 burned and shattered bodies, victims of Wednesday's plane disaster.

Among the rows of blanket-covered corpses were the 18 members of the U.S. team headed for the world figure skating championships and 32 other Americans.

All were killed as the Sabena Belgian Airlines Boeing 707 jet winging in from New York dived into the back yard of a small farm three miles from Brussels airport.

The bodies lay under blue blankets in an improvised Chapel of Rest in the main hall of the old Brussels airport building.

The task of identifying the bodies fell to the U.S. consulate. In many cases, only a scrap of charred clothing or a twisted wedding ring could serve as clues.

Whether the bodies will be shipped back to the United States or not depends on the wishes of relatives.

It Will Be Something To See

The Soviet Union's ouster move against Dag Hammerskjold, secretary general of the United Nations, will be like watching a familiar tragedy. It has been seen before.

The victim the other time was Trygve Lie, who had been nominated to be secretary general of the United Nations, by the Soviet Union. That was in 1946. The United Nations was new. No one could be sure how it was going to work.

The new secretary general blazed the trail. He was independent of Communist pressure. Looking back, when he announced his resignation late in 1952, he said the thing that finally broke his spirit was what the Soviet Union did to him when he supported the U.N. action in Korea.

His spirit had been fractured before that, he admitted, by criticism of the United Nations by Americans and increasing pressure on the U.N. budget by opponents who were hoping to starve it into submission.

And what did the Soviet Union do to Trygve Lie when it tagged him for extermination?

IT MADE HIM powerless. It boycotted him. It slandered him whenever it thought it could do him harm. It took shrewd advantage of the fact he would have to be defended by other powers in the U.N. Security Council and turned him into such a heavy liability they were pleased when he finally turned in his resignation.

This is how it will be done with Dag Hammarskjold. The script hasn't been changed. The Soviet Union has tagged him for the kill. It has warned the other members of the United Nations that it will refuse to recognize his authority.

The United States and Hammarskjold's other friends, believing he has tried to be fair and knowing they are in a showdown on prestige, will defend him stoutly. It will be a stirring drama. And they will lose.

In the end, Hammarskjold will have to resign because he will have been made ineffectual by the relentless, stony opposition of a member of the U.N. Security Council.

THIS TIME the showdown issue will be the Congo, instead of Korea.

The names and faces in the United Nations are different, but the issue is exactly what it was in the years after 1946 when the Soviet Union was experimenting with the new agency that had been brought into existence to preserve international peace by cooperative security.

The Soviet Union was trying to find out whether it could use the United Nations for its own purposes. It was trying to find out whether it could bulldoze the secretary general, to make him hire Communist spies and carry out Russia's expansionist policies.

The Kremlin ran into Trygve Lie first, then it ran into Dag Hammarskjold. It ruined the effectuality of Lie and now it is about to do the same to Hammarskjold. There will be another showdown and another Kremlin triumph, unless this time someone else resigns before Hammarskjold yields to the inevitable.

Perhaps this time the United States should let it be known that the price of scalping Dag Hammarskjold is going to be the disintegration of the United Nations; that the United States, itself, will pull out if the Soviet Union intends to ruin every secretary general it cannot dominate.

Check Their Ages

The continued crackdown in Hancock County against the sale of alcoholic beverages to minors is encouraging and should be expanded if the situation demands.

Arrests in neighboring counties always tend to revive the question: "Are our own skirts clean?"

Some reports have reached our ears as to sales here to youngsters who could have been under age. We have no way of knowing at this time whether such reports were true or not.

The reports, however, serve as a reminder that constant vigilance is necessary against such a practice. The burden remains on the shoulders of the tavern owners and their employes.

If there's any question as to age and proof is lacking, the only sensible thing is to refuse the sale.

Government Cannot Make Jobs

There is to be no repetition of boondoggling in the government's efforts to make work for idle hands, promises Labor Secretary Goldberg.

It is assumed that his promise also reflects the thinking of Commerce Secretary Hodges, who should be sharing the spotlight with Mr. Goldberg on this matter of providing jobs.

The fact is, government cannot make jobs. That is now acknowledged, but in the '30s there was a persistent illusion that the government could make jobs and was making jobs when it paid wages to unemployed citizens for doing tasks under CWA, PWA, WPA and other alphabetic agencies in charge of job-making.

What the government provided was work, not jobs.

Much of the work was important; that cannot be debated.

Although some of it was foolish—the boondoggling variety—things never were as bad as they were made out to be by the uninhibited critics of made-work in the Roosevelt area. But the net effect was to demonstrate that the government could not make jobs. Unemployment persisted throughout the '30s.

A job, strictly defined, is work performed for pay in pursuance of an organized enterprise. The government provides jobs, for example, when it handles its routine duties. But the government is not providing a job when it gives a soldier a stick with a nail in the end of it and orders him to pick up waste paper. It was not providing jobs when it gave citizens rakes and shovels and told them to go through the motions of work relief.

Most of the jobs in this country are made by private enterprise. All the jobs that add wealth and produce tax revenue must be provided by private enterprise. Therefore, the only way the government can really provide jobs is to do everything in its power to encourage private enterprise.

That is Secretary Hodges' job. It is growing stranger by the day that Secretary of Labor Goldberg should be talking about job-making, instead of the secretary of commerce, who presumably knows something about it.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Stock market is now being played on tips from vaudeville and TV performers. Lou Holtz told airwave fans he had a $10 stock that would go to $1,000. George Jessel is reported to have caused a rush into market by writing a commercial delivered for an investment house.

We called our broker and asked "Whom do you recommend for the long pulls, Holtz or Jessel? Or do you think I should keep out of market until I hear from Jackie Gleason and Shelley Berman?

His reply was "How Holtzish do you feel. Some of my clients think conditions favorable for comedians' opinions. Others say the market is over-Holtzed."

"What is your advice on Jessel?" we asked. "Our statisticians have been in conference for days and have decided against commitments on the basis of any Hollywood after-dinner speaker's bullishness."

Later we got a market letter from one of the more confused Wall Street houses:

"In our opinion the stock market has been affected by late, late shows, funnymen and whispers in ear of Jack Paar. Charles Laughton heard whisper and we would advise watching him closely to see if his mood rises or falls sharply in next few weeks.

Comedians, emcees and members of the cast of "Mutiny On The Bounty" have not been market factors in past but this is a different type market and there are reports that rodeo stars, amateur night winners and circus clowns are bullish on $5 securities.

A carnival operator tells the Wall Street Journal he has a 10-cent stock which will go to $2,000 by 1985, give or take 50 years.

At the moment we would advise caution, especially if you have all your life savings in stocks. We discredit the rumor that one of the highest paid gagmen on TV is merging with a top banana guest star to obtain diversification of hot tips between musical numbers."

ROBERT MOSES' Niagara Falls Power Plant has been completed and opened, a reality after 40 years of conflict. Mr. Moses may now be said to be the first man to go over Niagara Falls in a box of headache pills.

It seems as if Secretary Goldberg's message to the country is "We are in a terrible recession and you'll take my word for it or else. We won't stand for any doubts about it."

It must be hard for President Kennedy to cling to "Things are going to be worse before they get better" as he relaxes in new Virginia estate deep in the fox and hounds country which he uses for weekends only. Camp David, he admits, will not see much of him. Will the Virginia retreat be called "Camp Yoicks" or "Camp Tally-ho"?

Harry is in Bermuda taking a genuine test to see if he can stand tranquility.

New York man faces jail as fellow who tore up 187 traffic summonses, mostly no-parking. Will sentence provide that on good behavior he will be allowed to park in cell indefinitely.

New slogans for Brendan Behan promotion: "42 Behans in every cup."

Former Bronx football star is alleged to be Russian spy arrested in England. Oh, well, he may get off with a penalty for unnecessary roughness or a personal foul.

Bernard Goldfine of vicuna coat fame has been held mentally competent by Boston judge. Maybe he gets a little erratic when he remembers his gift lists.

Nobody can justify law violations by corporation chiefs but those of big electric company officials, fined or jailed, could have won discharge if they had simply pleaded insanity. Any man who tries too hard to operate a major industry in these days of tough competition, high costs, cut-rate boys, federal questionnaires and general economic problems is obviously "off his rocker."

Speedy punishment of big businessmen would indicate that pleading guilty, never hiding behind in "fifth" and showing up in court without a long police record, will take you out of circulation much faster than notorious underworld hoodlums who make a career of thumbing noses at law and sneering at all courts, high, low and medium.

Maybe electric corporation men made a mistake in not clamming up and arrogantly announcing from a Florida luxury hotel that they were confident of beating "the rap" in accordance with past experience.

The Executor Reads The Will

Red 'Sleepers' Operate In U.S.

By Victor Riesel

Never has there been so much evidence of the smoothness of the Communist international underground railroad over which the Soviets shuttle their master agents and spies. One of these agents briefed a small cell of operatives in his city on the morning of Nov 19 — some 90 days ago.

Victor Riesel

This agent, Irving Potash, was moved into the United States some time ago from Peiping, Moscow and Warsaw. His specialty is infiltration of labor in strategic plants and that morning he ordered the seeping into the steel union in this vast Chicago-Gary area and on into Pennsylvania steel cities.

In the case of Potash, a Polish citizen, the underground railway enabled this Soviet agent to slip into the United States. The underground road works just as effectively in the other direction —moving carefully trained Communist Americans into Soviet espionage rings in other lands.

Such is the case in the grim British spy exposure now really rocking the entire London counter-intelligence system.

That ring, which has done as much damage to England as the atomic spies did to us a decade ago, centered around a Morris Cohen, alias Peter Kroger, it has been revealed.

Few except a handful of us know anything about Cohen-Kroger and how he was first recruited in the U.S. by Moscow.

THIS BACKGROUND is vital. Cohen-Kroger certainly is one of many spies who still operate inside our key plants and who started the "trip" by joining the Young Communist League. Cohen-Kroger signed up in the early '30s while attending New York University.

Big, amiable, handsome, always smiling, he was soon picked by the party people to be a "sleeper." Under their direction he went through several universities. Then he was assigned to "sleep" in the New York food and restaurant fields.

He was attached to something called Local 115 of the Food Workers Industrial Union. This was a Communist unit of 300 waiters, waitresses, cafeteria service people, bartenders, and busboys—anyone the party could sign up in their special union.

This was part of a larger operation known as the Trade Union Unity League — TUUL — a Soviet master outfit with "unions" in many fields.

Soon the Food Workers Industrial Union Local 115 offered to merge with the official AFL restaurant workers. The united front offer was accepted on the theory that the smaller number of Communists could not develop any strength in the bigger union. So why not absorb their 300 members?

THE RESTAURANT local then was on Manhattan's West 36th St. Cohen-Kroger showed up regularly in the union's "day room." He recruited waitresses for the Communist Workers School in Lower Manhattan.

Soon, however, he switched to lining up bartenders, waiters, countermen, for something called the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. These were the volunteers for the Communist Foreign legion fighting against Franco during the Spanish Civil War.

Cohen himself went to Spain in July 1937, illegally using a passport issued in the name of Altman.

After his return, the Soviets rewarded him with steady work so he could live nicely at 178 East 71st St., New York City. First he was a "guard" at the Soviet Pavilion during the 1939 World's Fair.

In 1942 they moved him into Amtorg, the Soviet purchasing agency in the United States. After a stint in the Army, he returned to New York, signed up at Columbia's Teachers' College for two years and wound up in the city's teaching system.

ALL THIS TIME he was in what might be termed a personnel "pool" available to Soviet master spies. When the time comes, this record will be made public.

Finally Moscow intelligence authorities decided to move him to his just reward—a top espionage assignment in Britain. Off on the underground railroad he went, via New Zealand.

What is important now is to reaize that there are other such "sleepers" still operating in the United States.

There was, for example, in addition to the Food Workers Industrial Union, a Metal Trades Industrial Union.

It created electrical and electronic unions. Some of these unions still exist. Some of their leaders still are under party discipline.

No matter how small their number and no matter how small the Communist party of America is, they can do vast damage. It took only five spies in the British ring of Cohen-Kroger to save the Soviets many years experimentation in undersea nuclear warfare.

Next time you hear the Communist party screaming it is being persecuted, remember the underground railroad.

Kennedy In Balancing Act

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy is doing a balancing act: Attempting to be firm while acting on the theory that a soft answer turneth away wrath.

He's doing this with Russia and Congress, trying to stiff-arm both without making either angry. He demonstrated it again at his news conference Wednesday night.

It's a technique which is good when it works. Kennedy's problem, at least with Congress, is: Will it? It hasn't, so far.

Congress has done practically nothing for 45 days. Kennedy has been pleading for action, particularly on the recession. But he's avoided saying anything so tart it would make getting congressional action even harder.

He has been firm with the Russians — warning them Wednesday night not to move into the Congo — while still seeking to repair American-Russian relations and hoping to do business with Premier Khrushchev.

Wednesday was Kennedy's worst in this field.

The Russians, following the killing of the Congo's Patrice Lumumba, demanded U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold be fired and indicated they might intervene in the Congo.

Kennedy warned the United States would back the United Nations against any "dangerous and irresponsible" intervention by anyone and then spoke hopefully of peace through improved relations with the Soviets.

This was exactly the same sturdy-nice policy with Russia Kennedy laid down from the moment he took office—in his inaugural address. It seemed to be working, at least until Wednesday.

The Russians treated him mildly. And Khrushchev held his testy tongue.

But the President's problems with Congress are no less immediate. There, although his own Democrats have a majority over the Republicans, the conservatives of both parties dominate.

And the Republican leaders have downgraded his plea for fast anti-recession action. It was in his State of the Union message Jan. 30 that Kennedy tried to convey to Congress a sense of urgency at home and abroad.

He used phrases like these: "I speak . . . in an hour of national peril . . . each day the crises multiply . . . each day we draw nearer the hour of maximum danger. . . ."

Wednesday the Washington Post said the Republicans' Senate leader, Everett Dirksen of Illinois, told them Kennedy's message had about as much impact on Congress as a "snowflake falling on the bosom of the Potomac."

At his news conference Kennedy referred to that reported statement of Dirksen without referring to the senator by name.

If this is the kind of attitude and cooperation he has to look forward to from Congress, Kennedy will have to decide whether to abandon his pleasant approach to Congress for a much tougher one.

For a while after President Truman took over in 1945 he had a kind of honeymoon with Congress. In the end he got very tough. So did Congress. What followed was a prolonged cat-and-dog fight. But Truman got a lot of action.

For eight years President Eisenhower never tried the tough approach. He got some action. But a lot he suggested was shoved under the rug and ignored. This was one reason he was criticized for lack of leadership.

It was thought that Kennedy's extremely broad use of television for his news conferences would be a powerful force for lining up public opinion on his side and thus influencing Congress to act as he wished.

He may have to reexamine his approach. He has tried repeatedly in dealing with Congress to convey a sense of urgency for what he requested. Judging from congressional response, or rather the lack of response, he has failed to convey it.

Soviet Travesty

By David Lawrence

Congo Violence Stems From Red Manipulation

What a travesty of grief the Moscow regime has given to the world over the news of Lumumba's death in the Congo!

David Lawrence

No tears were shed by the Communists when they engineered the uprising inside the Congo last July that resulted in the raping of many white women by Congolese natives.

Now the communists blame the death of Lumumba — their own agent — on the secretary general of the United Nations. They claim that the dead tribesman was the "duly elected premier" of the Congo Parliament.

On the same day that such propaganda was being transmitted over the air waves, Stewart Alsop happened to publish in this week's issue of "The Saturday Evening Post" an article declaring that Lumumba has been a Communist tool. The article — written, of course, before Lumumba's death but after an extensive investigation in Africa — says in part:

"Much has been made by the Communists, the neutralists and some plain fatheads of the fact that Lumumba is the 'democratically elected' premier of the Congo. It is quite true that the Congolese Parliament voted to make Lumumba premier but this triumph of parliamentary democracy was achieved by a judicious mixture of threats and bribery.

"In Lumumba's heyday he bought members of the Congolese Parliament at the going rate of $2,000 a head. There was never much of a secret about where this money came from either. The Russians, the Czechs, the Chinese Communists, the Ghanians, the Egyptians and both the Belgian bankers and the Belgian Communists all bought a slice of Lumumba preferred on the Lumumba bull market.

"This, then, is how Lumumba became the 'democratically elected' premier of the Congo. And this suggests how meaningless high-sounding words are likely to be, measured against the African realities."

Almost coincident with the publication of this remarkable story by Mr. Alsop — indeed, it is prophetic of today's events — the news came from Cairo that President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, who has been playing the Communist game right along in the Congo, has granted full recognition to the Congo regime headed by Antoine Gizenga, a lieutenant of Lumumba.

HE ANNOUNCED it in messages to the heads of the Casablanca Conference nations — Morocco, Ghana and Guinea — and of Indonesia, India and Yugoslavia.

It will be recalled that the Casablanca Conference decided as a group to withdraw their respective troop contingents from the United Nations forces in the Congo, thus, in effect, taking the side of the Communists and their instrument — Lumumba.

Throughout the world, wherever they have active agents, the Communists have started simultaneous demonstrations of protest against the "massacre" of Lumumba and his aides.

Moscow, moreover, has declared it no longer will deal with or recognize Dag Hammarskjold as secretary general of the United Nations.

This opens the way to the only logical action that can be taken in response to such a move — the expulsion of the soviet government from the U.N. Sooner or later treason within the ranks of the U.N. has to be dealt with, and the announced rebellion against the secretary general affords the basis for punitive action.

Sen. Fulbright says it "is certainly a violation of article 100 of the U.N. Charter."

THE MOSCOW government has openly conceded that it supplied arms to Red China to make war on the United Nations troops in Korea in 1950. No action was taken by the U.N. then to protect its own integrity and the lives of the troops under its command by demanding redress from the Moscow regime.

A resolution was adopted declaring Red China an aggressor but the Soviet government was never condemned for what it did.

The omission has risen to plague the U.N. as today it sees the Soviets not only fighting the U.N. itself by supplying arms to native groups to resist the U.N. in Africa but stimulating hostile action among countries like the United Arab Republic, Ghana and Guinea, as well as Indonesia, which continuously find themselves aiding Communist operations in the "cold war."

Adlai Stevenson's words could be significant. He says the U.N. must act "collectively and effectively if it is to be a useful institution."

It cannot act collectively if it tolerates treason within its own ranks. For there's no concealing the fact that the Communists helped to stir up the whole Congo crisis by egging on the tribesmen to disorders when the Belgians gave up the reins of government.

COMMUNIST activity in Africa is parallel with its underground operations throughout Latin America. Sooner or later the West will have to start revealing to the world the facts gathered for months about the Communist acts of hostility toward the U.N. and the West in Africa and on all other continents.

Sooner or later, too, nations that seek aid from America will have to rid themselves of every vestige of Communist influence if they expect to be regarded as friendly powers. "Neutralism" too often is just a cover for pro-Communist activity.

Hurry It Up, Boys

By Truman Twill

You get to wondering what else you may have been missing when you read that the armed forces have asked the Commerce Department's National Inventors Council to come up with portable power units for soldiers.

The specifications are fascinating.

"As the soldier moves his hands, arms, legs and feet," they read, "the power mechanism would be automatically activated to multiply his strength in much the same manner as vehicle power brakes and power steering mechanism respond to foot pedal and steering wheel movements."

The apparatus to do this would be contained in an external skeleton that would be worn outside the human occupant. The wearer could perform all the natural movements of a human being, but he would have the strength of a truck.

The source of power would put out about four horsepower of energy for a period of 10 hours before it had to be renewed, presumably in the same way that power sources for flashlights and electric shavers are renewed — by plugging them in.

The idea couldn't have been sprung on me at a better time, with springtime a couple of months away and winter still here. Only this morning I could have used a power-packed external skeleton.

Everything was all set to go, except the part of me that does the going. The old head was okay — fuzzy but okay. The eyes could be brought into focus. Due to extra-bad sinus there was no voice for awhile, but you can't have everything at 6 a.m.

But there was no locomotion. The old legs wouldn't swing over the edge of the bed. The arms wouldn't lift high enough to lift off the covers. The head wouldn't come up off the pillow.

Here would have been an ideal place for an exterior skeleton with power units built in. Everything then would be ready to go at 6 a.m., because the power source would be chockful of zip, after being re-energized all night from an electric socket.

These little fractional horsepower motors would buzz and things would happen. The exterior skeleton would transport its passenger to the bathroom, hence to the kitchen for breakfast and a squirt of lubricating oil and eventually to the place of toil.

There would be nothing voluntary about this.

Every movement would be mechanical.

The passenger would be along for the ride. He would be the victim of a mechanistic civilization, going through the motions but with no heart in his work.

About 10 a.m., things would get better. The first coffee break of the day would find the inner skeleton beginning to assert itself against the mechanical strength of the outer skeleton. Human will would resurge.

By lunch, the indomitable spirit once again would be transcendent over the domitable body. Power then could be switched off. There would be both the will and the strength to live without drawing on external resources for strength, except in emergencies.

Man, we hope the National Inventors Council doesn't fool around on this vital project. They should have this thing tied up in a year or it may be too late!

The valuable element, uranium, never occurs in its pure form in nature, but is always combined with other substances to form a mineral. More than 100 uranium-bearing minerals are known to exist. In some of these, uranium is the chief constituent, but in others it forms only a very small part of the whole.

Chamber Told Rapid Change Awaits World

tion's economy is growing emphasis on the so-called service industries, Nance said. There are 35 million persons employed in service industries, compared with 26 million in production jobs, he pointed out.

Despite a decline in production of goods in 1960, the gross national product went to an all-time high of $503 billion because of the "unprecedented growth in consumption of services," he said.

'Under-Distribution' Seen

The present slack in the economy does not mean that the nation is suffering from over-production of goods or excess production capacity, he said. Rather it results from an "under-distribution of goods."

Billions have been spent on research to turn out new products, but very little has been utilized in research to improve distribution.

"To put it bluntly, there has been too little research into consumer changes, marketing and means of transportation."

The retail food industry has adjusted to "leisure buying habits" with its self-service stores, but other segments of the distributing field have not followed suit.

Then he turned to America's changing role in the world market. The nation's export trend is toward raw materials rather than manufactured products, he said. But importation of finished products is on the increase.

Caught Up With U.S.

"This demonstrates how these other countries, with a heavy advantage in lower labor costs, have caught up with our mass-production skills, our engineering and our quality and now compete fiercely with us everywhere."

Although employment is at practically its highest point in history, unemployment stands at about 6 per cent of the work force, making it a national issue.

"This is an instance of the changing scene, with employment of women and teen-agers on the increase as adult male employment drops, so that the old yardsticks grow meaningless."

The "modern worker" is better educated and more traveled than any of his predecessors, the bank president said. With a new sense of independence and seeking freedom from the drudgery of production jobs, more and more workers have moved into the service industries.

New Techniques

Nance also cited changes in speed of transportation and communications, mentioning the role of jet planes and micro-wave radio beams bounced off satellites which serve as "bridges" for telephone and television relays.

Small cities such as East Liverpool face the same problems as a metropolis in meeting the change in economic and business conditions.

"I am thinking of all our cities as well as yours when I say that the best thing any community can be doing at a time like this is to recap its proveable superiorities as a community for business and enterprise," he said.

"The important issue at this moment is: How long has it been since you have revalued and reasserted your advantages and how have you found them reclassified by the changes in the economy's frontiers?

"It is not enough today and it certainly won't be enough tomorrow just to offer free factory sites, lower taxes and a good water supply. Industry is tapering off from moving from one place to another just for the quick surface advantages that can be gained.

Rebuild Or Dwindle

"All communities have to engage in fairly constant rebuilding or they dwindle away. The progressive rebuilding of yours is of the same importance to your area as reconstruction, remodeling and removal of the obsolescent is to Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and every city. If yours has seemed to lag, then in your analysis of the community's advantages try to find out why and see what can be done about it.

"Every community can fit itself into the fast-changing American economy of tomorrow if it will bring realistic understanding and a certain kind of optimism to its evaluations. Unless you are ready to plan your future with this realistic analysis as your foundation, your community is not likely to grow very rapidly," he concluded.

T. Fred Edwards, retiring president of the Chamber, presided at the outset of the meeting and then turned over the gavel to Alvin T. Babb, the new president.

Trustees Introduced

Edwards introduced new and retiring members of the Board of Trustees. The new trustees are William A. Black Jr., Don Eckert, Fred P. Lawrence, Harry Martin, Harold R. Sneddon, Judge Louis Tobin and J. M. Wells Jr.

The retiring trustees are Dr. J. A. Fraser, C. W. Gerster, Francis H. Lang, Charles Taylor, Wendell H. Vodrey, Bert Wakefield and J. Norman Nicely. He also named the 1961 officers of the Chamber: William D. Ogilvie, first vice president; Taylor, second vice president; Alwyn Purinton Jr., treasurer, and E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager.

On behalf of the Chamber, Babb presented Edwards with a wooden cigarette box. On its lid is an inscription: "Award of special merit presented to T. Fred Edwards for aggressive leadership and faithful service as president of the Chamber of Commerce 1959-60."

Babb praised Edwards as "a grand guy" and "a very competent president." The retiring president thanked the Chamber officers, members and committee chairmen for their aid during his tenure. He listed some of the major accomplishments during the two years, including the start of construction of the city freeway; establishment of "political action" courses and creation of a downtown improvement committee.

Outlines 1961 Objectives

Babb outlined the Chamber's objectives for 1961. They include pledges to "work for the best interest of area business and industry and attempt to secure sound new industries for the area; to work for the betterment of the community generally; to seek to improve the business climate and to urge a broader interest in governmental affairs."

Invocation was by Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army. Marian Henry furnished dinner music on the electric organ. Dinner arrangements were made by a committee headed by John Pinney and Ralph Finley.

Guests introduced include:

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver; Mayor Ray Collins of Chester; Mayor William Shoub of Wellsville; H. James Allison, president of the Junior Chamber; Walter Myers of Steubenville, executive manager of the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council; Paul Mossman, executive director of the Youngstown Chamber.

County Group Meets

Firemen Outline Mutual-Aid Plans

Proposals for a countywide mutual aid program and communications system were outlined at a meeting of municipal and township officers with the Columbiana County Firemen's Association Wednesday night at Leetonia High School. Sixty attended.

Officers of the county association and state fire officials are shown above. Left to right in the front row are Fire Chief Robert Lewis of Wellsville, president; Assistant Chief Alfred Van Dyne of East Liverpool, secretary, and Paul J. Adams of East Palestine, vice president. At the rear are R. E. Ricker and J. W. Rutter, both of Columbus.

Rutter is superintendent of the Classification Department of the Ohio Inspection Bureau and Ricker is a fire prevention specialist working out of the Fire Prevention Bureau. Ricker replaced Wayne Jenkins, Chief of the Fire Prevention Bureau, who was unable to attend.

The goal of the association is the adoption of a master mutual-aid agreement for all communities and departments in the county. If such a proposal is adopted, all member departments then could give aid to each other when feasible.

Rutter said each department also could take inventory of its equipment, list it, and then each department would know who to call on in case of an emergency.

Rutter complimented the association for taking steps in setting up such a program. He said the Ohio Inspection Bureau highly favors mutual aid pacts.

Presently, it is left up to individual cities and villages to make such agreements.

A 45-minute question - and - answer period followed brief talks by the two state officials.

Association officials said the meeting was called primarily to enlighten city and township officials of the proposals and to notify them of what progress has been made. They will be kept informed of all future progress.

A calendar of meetings for the years was set up. The next meeting is March 15.

have provided a clue for a burglar, she said.

Mrs. Treadway said she found the back door of the home open when she returned yesterday afternoon, although all the doors and windows had been secure when she left. However, there was no sign of forcible entry.

The intruder ransacked drawers and closets throughout the home, officers said. A watch owned by Treadway was taken from a dresser upstairs, but it was found on the floor near the rear door, where it apparently was dropped, officers said.

Patrolman W. E. McDaniel made the investigation.

Meanwhile, a 15-year-old St. Clair Ave. boy was apprehended in theft of a carton of cigarettes at a market Wednesday night and a tire, tube and wheel were stolen from a used car lot.

the Soviet Union" for triumvirate control of the U.N. machinery. This, he said would not give the uncommitted countries the instrument they need.

Outside the Soviet bloc, only Cuba, Guinea and Mali, which normally lean toward the Soviet view, had so far joined the new campaign against Hammarskjold.

In cables to Hammarskjold Wednesday President Sekou Toure of Guinea demanded "the collective resignation of the secretary-general and his closest collaborators," and President Modibo Keita of Mali promised "permanent defiance" of Hammarskjold until he quit. Toure also asked for the immediate withdrawal of all U.N. technical assistance experts from Guinea.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa cabled the council that Hammarskjold's resignation "can be delayed no further."

Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic worked to draw up a resolution that could win council approval and at the same time keep the U.N. in the Congo.

Diplomatic sources said the three nations thought of proposing that the U.N. Congo force prevent civil war by placing neutral zones between the rival factions —and by shooting if necessary; that the council demand the immediate withdrawal of Belgian military personnel from the Congo, and that it send a commission to investigate Lumumba's death.

Some informants said the prospective sponsors had thrown out the idea of mentioning Hammarskjold in connection with the force, since they feared this would provoke a Soviet veto, and were having trouble finding an acceptable substitute formula.

Water Head At Midland To Take Training

Donald Craik, manager of the Midland water department, was authorized by the Municipal Authority Wednesday evening to attend a sewage works operators' laboratory course at Penn State University March 6-10.

The authority said he should attend since the borough's new sewage treatment plant, still under construction, will eventually be operated by the water department.

Rudolph Presutti urged members to consider attending a two-day meeting in Washington Feb. 28-March 1 concerning sewage treatment plants, municipal authorities and funds availability. Borough Council is planning to send a delegation, he said.

Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor, reminded new members of the authority that receipts for trip expenses must be kept for the state audit of the authority's books in July.

Presutti, labor chairman, reported on negotiations for a new contract with the water department employes' union. He said their representative has asked for a meeting with the authority.

Craik was asked to contact the representative and set a meeting date soon, other than Tuesday, which is payday in the mill. The old contract expired Oct. 1.

Granville Kester, Michael Baker consulting engineer, reported work will begin about Monday for the extension water line to the new sewage plant.

Craik reported that contacts and relays with heaters are being installed for motors which gave some trouble last September. The additions to protect the equipment will cost about $80 plus installation.

Kester said an electrical engineer from Michael Baker will give the plant a general checkup, without cost, to see if a detailed study is needed of the plant's electrical system.

A letter was read from Borough Council, appointing Leslie B. Roach to another five-year term on the authority as of Jan. 1.

On a motion by Lawrence Cuccaro, the authority approved transfer of $10,000 from the capital construction fund at the Beaver Trust Co., Midland branch, to the Midland Dollar Savings & Loan Association in order to draw 4 per cent interest.

A special closed committee meeting of all members was set for Monday at 8 p. m. by Dr. Zanvel Sigal, president.

Mrs. Malena Westlake, secretary-treasurer, reported $98,992.25 in various accounts as of Jan. 1. Bills of $9,106.55 were ordered paid.

EAST PALESTINE — The East Palestine High School Senior Class Wednesday authorized $100 towards a fund for payment of medical bills to Donald Woods, school gridder injured in the opening 1959 game and who still is being treated at the Cleveland Clinic Hospital.

A program to pay for the some $2,000 expenses now pending, following expiration of the school insurance policy, is being sponsored by the high school athletic committee, headed by Coach Howard Meyers.

A benefit game Tuesday netted $75. A home talent show is planned March 17, the Mothers Athletic Club has scheduled a number of projects such as dances.

Woods, 18, of E. Grant St., who suffered a shoulder separation and stretched nerve, is undergoing physical therapy following surgery and is expected to regain the use of his arm. He plans to re-enter school in the fall.

mending which or if both should be obtained for additional metering of the community pending further study of the sewage plant plans.

Bishop reported 31 delinquent water bills have been turned over to Squire John Herron for collection, representing due accounts totaling over $1,300. More are to be turned in soon, he said.

"The water department can not operate unless its bills are collected," Bishop declared.

Councilman Donald Hissam suggested a new hydrant be installed at 2nd St. and Carolina Ave. where the present faulty hydrant has been shut off for some two years. Bishop said the installation will be scheduled.

Bishop reported the T. K. Roofing Co., which has been utilizing a section of city property near the upper pump station for a storage-loading area, seeks permission to erect a roof over the area.

Bishop said perhaps a written agreement should be signed in order to keep the matter legally clear. Hissam said the firm has been using the site under permission granted a few years ago, and that the city can, under such an arrangement, take over the area immediately in event its use is required to repair water mains or for some emergency.

He said a leasing and renting proposition was turned down before by Council in order to keep its immediate rights to usage unrestricted.

Following a discussion, Council agreed to have Mrs. Turner prepare a tentative permissive agreement for study with officials of the firm at the next meeting.

Bishop also reported $976 is due from a number of city residents for the two-year fire levy which expired in 1960, and asked for a decision on collecting the delinquent bills.

It was pointed out that some of the delinquent residents are on pension, social security or state aid, and collection costs from such welfare recipients may be borne by the city.

Council agreed to meet to review the delinquent cases at a later session.

Council also authorized a subordinate agreement with the State Sinking Fund Commission clearing permission for the federal government to obtain city-owned property along the Ohio River as a right-of-way with the anticipated rise of the river after completion of the Stratton Super-dam.

Council authorized payment of bills totaling $1,641, including a $307 gas heating bill, described as one of the largest in recent years. Clerk Roy Cashdollar reported receipts of $1,805.

Council commended the city street department for its efficiency in snow removal. Payment for the $15,605 intake wall project at the upper pump station, by Hatcher Brothers of Mingo Junction, was authorized, along with final payment of $1,500 for engineering fees to McGill Smith Co.

Cashdollar presided in the absence of Mayor Collins, who attended the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce dinner.

U.S. Sends Up Rocket In Satellite Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today launched a huge "poor man's rocket" intended to loft a balloon satellite into high orbit in a new study of the planet's atmosphere—still a puzzler in man's efforts to conquer space.

It also was a showdown test of the still-unproved Scout launching rocket on which the United States is placing high hopes to help meet Russia's admitted lead in the space race.

If orbit is achieved, today's venture will mark the first time an earth satellite has sprung from a site other than Cape Canaveral, Fla., or Southern California's Pacific missile range.

The 72 foot-tall, 36,600-pound, four-stage Scout, bearing a 15-pound, 12-foot diameter inflatable sphere—folded like an accordion in its nose—roared aloft at 8:05 a.m. EST from the Wallops Island, Va., station of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, NASA announced here.

NASA officials said the lift-off "looked good."

Automatic inflation, and injection into orbit of the space balloon—made of plastic and aluminum material only twice as thick as the wrapping on a cigarette package—was expected to take place within about 15 minutes after launch. But confirmation of an orbit could take considerably longer.

Kennedy

want work and can't find a job.

Alluding to Congress, the President said he hopes there will be action on his legislative program as soon as possible. He reviewed steps he already has taken on his own to relieve hardship and encourage business recovery, and then listed additional measures he had just ordered apart from proposals which require congressional approval.

These include instructions to quicken distribution of $4 billion in tax refunds which are coming due, in an effort to get this money into the spending stream.

Kennedy also announced that $734 million is being made available this month for the federal highway construction program. He noted that faster outlay of these funds will have to be implemented by state and local governments, and disclosed he had dispatched telegrams to all state governors urging a speed-up.

Also, the President said the government is changing its regulations to make more small business firms eligible for defense contracts.

Kennedy's news conference—his fourth since taking office—was broadcast live on nationwide television and radio. He was solemn for the most part, but on a couple of occasions he joined in laughter touched off by questions or by his replies.

Kennedy had this to say on other matters:

Rocket Boosters—The Soviet Union is ahead of the United States in development of superboosters capable of hurling the Soviets' Venus-bound vehicle into space, and this "is a matter of great concern." While indications are, the President added, that the Soviet Union will remain ahead in this field for some time unless there is a U. S. scientific breakthrough, "we have sufficiently large boosters to protect us militarily."

Cuba—Obviously alluding to the Eisenhower administration, Kennedy said this government probably miscalculated in assessing the Castro regime in Cuba. "But," he added, "I have no evidence that anyone did it out of any motive but to serve the United States."

181 Register For Relief Job

Registration continued today in New Cumberland for the work-relief program instituted by Gov. W. W. Barron as an emergency measure.

County Clerk Don G. Stewart's office said 181 men signed Wednesday and registration will be held until 4 p. m. today and from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Friday in the election office in the Courthouse.

Registration was steady today, but nothing like the mob that turned out yesterday morning, officials said. The Courthouse halls were jammed when clerks began arriving shortly before 8 yesterday morning to begin the registration.

No information is available on when those who registered may begin work on road and conservation projects, officials said. The Northern Panhandle's four counties were given the lowest priority in the governor's program. Priority ratings were based on the percentage of the work force currently employed.

Kennedy's appointment of Frank Burton Ellis as director of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization. Another bulletin was read on a request for an increase in the national CD budget for 1961-62.

Future projects were discussed. Following business, the group made "pinkies" for the City Hospital nursery. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jolly and Mrs. Jones. The date of the next meeting will depend upon availability of a speaker from Third Area CD headquarters in Youngstown.

34 Satellites Launched By U.S., 11 By Soviets

The conquest of space is an adventure for all mankind, but the space age was born in the shadow of the military, and it still is sharply affected by the great cold war rivalry. In this second of three articles, American and Soviet achievements are compared.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —In 40 months, 45 satellites have soared up successfully from the United States and Soviet Russia.

The Soviets put up 11, this country 34.

The Soviet Union leads in spectacular, impressive firsts and in weights. In quick succession this month, she put up a record-breaking seven-ton Sputnik, then capped this with a huge satellite which went into orbit, and then launched from space a 1,400-pound probe aimed at perhaps hitting or going into orbit around Venus.

The reach toward Venus opened a new, fourth phase of Soviet space age efforts. Until now, the Soviet Union has been bunching her shots in triple plays, each concerned with a different aspect or region of space.

Her first three Sputniks orbited the earth.

Then in 1959, she reached for the moon, hitting it, photographing its back side, and sending one probe past the moon to become the first little man-made planet of the sun. The United States later sent two probes into orbit around the sun, one of them radioing back space findings over a record distance of 22½ million miles.

Abruptly, the Soviets dropped the moon, and last year sent three spaceships, weighing up to five tons, orbiting near the earth.

In a brilliant feat, the Soviets brought back part of their second spaceship containing two dogs. The time seemed near to launch a man, but in December the capsule of the third ship failed to obey command signals and burned up. Two dogs, other animals, insect and plant life all perished.

It was a rare if not the first official Soviet admission of any mishap in her space shoots.

Last weekend, the Soviets opened the interplanetary phase, with the new feat of launching a Venus probe from space itself.

She had remained curiously silent about the seven-ton Sputnik, but then one Soviet space official said it had been intended mainly to learn whether such a heavy satellite could be put and kept into a precise orbit.

The Sputnik launching the Venus messenger might have been another seven-ton affair.

The Soviets have behaved like eager explorers pioneering into an unknown continent—not waiting to settle and cultivate one region before roaring out to make first contact with another.

Her fifth venture could be man into space.

Some Western experts believe the Soviets embarked in 1956 or ealier on a plan to send man into space. This would be at least two years ahead of the start of the U.S. program.

Sputnik II, carrying the dog Laika in November 1957, is taken as one sign of such intent.

Limited in weight by smaller rockets, but using ingenious miniaturized equipment, the American program has been more diversified, and more broadly based.

The United States clearly leads, most experts say, in gleaning new scientific knowledge from and about space, and in cultivating space for valuable practical applications.

Tiros satellites photographing clouds and measuring earth temperatures took the first step toward keen weather eyes in space. Samos II, just put up by the Air Force, is using cameras which could serve as military scouts.

Echo, the shiny balloon, and Courier satellites are preparing the way for a space network to relay civilian telephone calls, TV and radio programs, and military commands.

Transit satellites augur artificial stars supplying exquisitely accurate navigational fixes for ships and planes.

But even greater benefits could come from basic knowledge being learned about earth, air, space and sun.

U.S. satellites discovered the Van Allen radiation belts.

U.S. satellites have explored more vigorously and keenly the earth's magnetic and gravitational fields, the great pulses of atomic particles hurled at the earth by gigantic explosions on the sun, the ionosphere, upper atmosphere, the pressure exerted by sunlight, the shape of the earth.

From such studies of the sun's effects on earth could come better understandings of what makes our weather, and perhaps one day to control it.

Knowledge is coming like fruit falling from a tree, says Dr. Robert Jastrow, chief of the theoretical division of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The Soviets have published far fewer reports on their findings, he adds. Since their moon shots, they appear to have lost momentum in studying aspects of space near earth.

He feels the Soviets have attracted fewer scientists with original and imaginative ideas to their space program—perhaps because such scientists are more desperately needed in other fields.

First in developing great booster rockets, the Soviet Union can loft up far heavier payloads, and can equip satellites with excellent guidance controls.

But mammoth boosters are being developed here, too. And the U.S. space program calls for a variety of exciting feats in this year and decade.

AFL-CIO Sets Meetings To Back Kennedy's Plans

By NORMAN WALKER
AP Labor Reporter

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The AFL-CIO's political organization today set a nationwide series of labor union conferences to rally support behind the Kennedy administration's program.

The meetings are to start March 7-8 at Pensacola, Fla., for states in this area and range through a total of 17 sessions to a final one June 3-4 at Sioux Falls, S.D.

Called by the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, or COPE as it is called, the meetings are designed to bring grassroots support in Congress for Kennedy's program and to seek implementing measures in state legislatures.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president here for winter labor union meetings, urged unions Wednesday to get behind the plans proposed by President Kennedy to restore the national economy to full employment and production.

"We must do our job to help mobilize support," Meany told the federation's maritime trades department officials. "I have the greatest confidence in that program and in the President personally."

Meany noted that business organizations like the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers are opposing some Kennedy proposals, but added that "these people don't seem to have learned anything from the past."

The AFL-CIO chief said that higher wages, also would help offset the recession. He explained that "it is my concept that ours is a high-wage, high-price economy."

The federation's building trades department, meanwhile, adopted a new policy that the department's president, C. J. Haggerty, said he is sure will reduce to a minimum picketing and strikes at the nation's missile bases.

The policy bans such labor activity at missile bases and sites until a local union exhausts all possible settlement remedies and gets formal permission from its national union to call a walkout.

Numbers by the Kitchen Band were "The Old Piano Roll Blues," "I Wander, I Wander, I Wander," "Doodle-Dee-Do" and "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boogie."

Jackie Hopper, a sixth grade pupil, gave a piano solo, "Always."

Elected to the nominating committee were Mrs. Verna Thorne, chairman, James Angus and Mrs. Glenda Bock, who will present a slate of officers at the April meeting.

A committee named to the Guard Fund consists of Homer Cronin, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCoy, Wilbur Purinton, Wayne Hunter and Allan Smith.

Business was conducted by Don Derrington, president.

Concert Band Plans Dropped For Present

Lack of sufficient turnout for the proposed Tri-State Adult Concert Band has caused leaders to drop plans for the present Vince Maola, director, announced today.

Attendance at Monday night's rehearsal was 20, down from the previous 23 and 26 attending, and Maola and Peter D'Argenzio decided at a meeting Wednesday to cancel further planning for the group for the time being.

Maola said those interested in the band "are very enthusiastic about it, and will be disappointed," but he said the number taking part so far does not warrant further development.

Two Democrats Lose Jobs In Wood County

BOWING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —Two members of the Wood County Democratic Executive Committee have lost their jobs for what Chairman Albert N. Anness called the "best interests of unity and discipline."

Patrick Crowley and Albert Newlove, both of Bowling Green, ousted by the 13-9 vote of the committee, said the action resulted from their signing of a petition on behalf of Miss Katherine Labey, registrar of motor vehicles here. The pair said that Anness is trying to have Miss Labey dismissed. Anness, however, denied that was the reason for the committee's action.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: You're a fine one to be telling a 42-year-old woman that she ought to be thrilled to be having a baby. How old are you, anyway?

This woman has a son in college and a daughter in high school. Her life has just about reached the point where she can relax a little. And now she has to start with 4 a.m. feedings, whooping cough shots, diapers, baby food and the whole bit.

I was 41 when my third son was born. My kids were in high school. Everyone told me how happy I should be. My husband was delirious with joy. (Men always are. Their lives don't change, no matter how many kids are at home.)

Well, I wasn't happy about it then and I'm not happy about it now. The little boy is 3 and he's wilder than the two older ones were, put together. Wherever I go people ask me how old my grandson is. It doesn't make sense to them that a woman my age should have a boy in rompers. And after shagging that kid night and day I know they're right.—X-HAUSTED.

Dear X: Cheer up, Toots. When the two older ones are married and gone you'll be glad you have this boy at home. It may be hard to believe now but hundreds of mothers wrote to tell me that their late dividend was the best of all.

Date Bureau

Dear Ann: I'm a girl 18, high school senior and old enough to know the boys with whom I want to go out.

My mother is always arranging dates for me and I'm fed up with the creeps she decides are "wonderful fellows." The guys are usually sons of her friends and they always seem to have rich fathers. This may be a coincidence but she hasn't fixed me up with a poor fellow yet.

Do I have the right to refuse to go with these fixed-up dates? She says her judgment is better than mine because she's older and has seen more of life. One fellow was 28 years old and I felt like I was out with my grandfather. Please hurry your advice. I need it. —HELPLESS.

Dear Helpless: Tell your mother you appreciate her interest but you refuse to accept another fixed-up date. She may mean well but she's not being fair to you.

Hit Close To Home

Dear Ann: Your column has hit so close to home at times I think you must be writing just for me. That letter from the woman who had shock treatments for mental illness is an example. She was lucky to have had an understanding man. Mine wasn't.

When my psychiatrist told him the visits would cost $25 each and the treatments were extra he said to me, "Why don't you commit suicide? Your bills will drive me crazy, too."

I had a severe anxiety neurosis and was in terrible agony. I couldn't eat or sleep. I cried for no reason at all and didn't want to live. After 15 shock treatments I was 1,000 per cent better — no bundle of joy, mind you, but able to live a normal life, do my housework and meet people face to face.

Keep up the wonderful work. You'll never know how many people you help.—YOUR FRIEND.

Dear Friend: Many thanks for those warm words. It's letters like yours that make this work so rewarding. I'm deeply grateful.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

3 Teams Share Title When City League Ends In Deadlock

Billiards, Chester And Freed's Tie

No decision was reached in the 1960-61 City Basketball League. The loop finished in a three-way dead heat between American Billiards, Chester and Freed's. All posted 7-3 marks.

The three teams will go down as tri-champs, but a four - team playoff will be staged Wednesday with trophies going to the winner and runnerup.

The two survivors will play two games Wednesday in order for a champion to be crowned.

In the first game Wednesday at 6:30, American Billiards will meet Wellsville and the 7:30 contest will pit Chester against Freed's.

Wellsville and George Bright's were tied with identical 4-6 records and a flip of the coin last night determined which would compete in the playoffs.

The championship contest should get underway about 9 p. m. next Wednesday after the winner of the second game is given a brief rest.

Freed's threw the league into the three-way deadlock last night by coming from behind to upset the Billiards, 56-47. A victory would have clinched the title for American Billiards.

Freed's showed the greatest comeback of any team in the league. After losing its first three starts of the season, Freed's came on to win seven straight and nose its way into a share of the league championship.

Trailing 40-31 going into the fourth quarter, Freed's bounced back to grab the lead in the closing minutes.

Bevo Francis was the big reason for Freed's victory with his 31-point performance. The former Rio Grande star couldn't be stopped as he tossed in 14 field goals and three foul shots.

Paul James was high for American Billiards with 22 points while Jerry Murawski added 12.

Chester gained its piece of the title in an earlier game by dumping Wellsville, 70-65. The Chester five held the upperhand all the way with a halftime lead of 38-34 and 54-46 after three periods.

Phil Chan was Chester's sparkplug. The ex-Potter cager hooped 20 points while Newell's John Kiger collected 17.

The league went right down to the wire when the final game ended up in a 60-58 overtime win for George Bright's over East End.

John Watson and "deadeye" Jerry Conley paced the winners with 17 and 14 points, respectively. Joe Anderson popped in 17 while Bill Hulme and Bob Bickle came up with 14 each for the losers.

The score at the end of regulation time was 53-53.

Future Of Ohio's All-Star Games To Be Set Monday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The issue on the future of high school all-star football and basketball games still hangs in the balance after Tuesday night's long state board of control meeting at the offices of the Ohio High School Athletic Association.

After the long session the board tabled the matter until Monday, Feb. 20, when a decision is expected.

The issue came up again when the NCAA decided that boys participating in non-sanctioned all-star games would be ineligible for one year of collegiate competition.

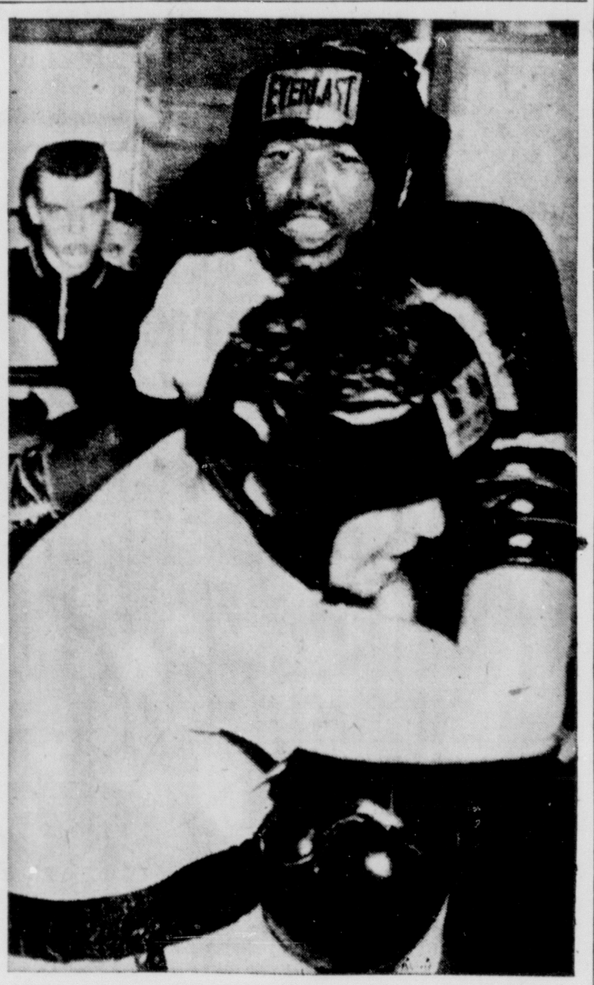

Ohio has never officially sanctioned any all-star game, claiming no control over the boys after graduation. All-star games are played with graduates only.

The board studied seven all-star applications at the meeting.

Most expensive yearling thoroughbred bought at Keeneland's Sales last summer was Nasholin, a son of Nashua. He cost John Olin of New York $75,000.

Unbeaten Stanton In Tourney Test

Stanton Local, unbeaten by 16 opponents in the regular season, puts its shoulder to the grind stone when Coach Harry Diehl sends his Ironmen against Yorkville as the Jefferson County Class "A" tourney opens tonight at Brilliant.

The Ironmen, top seeded with their perfect mark, face a dangerous Yorkville team in the second game tonight at 7:30. Yorkville posts a 10-8 record but has recorded the majority of its victories in the last part of the season.

Springfield Local and Dillonvale will receive the distinction of opening the tourney at 6:30 tonight. In the finale at 9 p. m. Mt. Pleasant faces Wayne.

If Stanton wins tonight, the Irons will return to action next Thursday, Feb. 23 meeting the winner of the Mt. Pleasant-Wayne contest in a semi-final game. The finals are set for Feb. 25.

Diehl will be starting the same five Ironmen which have carried the Red and Black through the school's first undefeated season. Don "Wilt" Spires, leading scorer on the team with 365 points and a 22.8 average will be at center. Sharpshooting Bob Mills along with steady performers like Jim Leedy, John Lutton and Curt Rose will round out the starting lineup.

Martins Ferry Hasn't Lost To An Ohio Team

If East Liverpool can come up with a victory Friday night, it will have the distinction of being the only Ohio team to defeat Martins Ferry so far this season.

The Potters meet the Purple Riders Friday night at Ferry.

The Riders, ranked among the top 20 teams in Ohio, have an outstanding 12-2 record. The only blemishes on the slate were administered by out-of-state teams.

They lost to Uniontown, Pa., and Camden, N. J., during the annual Holiday Tournament at Farrell in December.

Uniontown, which finally went on to win the tourney, topped Martins Ferry, 76-65, and the Riders lost to Camden, the New Jersey defending champions, 76-74.

Since then it has been nothing but victories for Coach Ed McGlumphy's squad. The Riders will take an eight-game winning streak into Friday's battle.

The two big reasons why Martins Ferry is rolling along at such a fast clip are captain Jim Brown and Bill Lude, a couple of 6-foot seniors.

This pair has done the lion's share of the scoring. Brown has tossed in 269 points, with his high 35 against Cambridge.

Lude, an all-state end in football, has scored 246, with his high 27.

Martins Ferry is currently leading the Ohio Valley Conference "AAA" division.

Rounding out the starting lineup are Terry Williams, a 6-foot-1 junior, Bob Scheelle, 6-foot-2½ junior, and Charles Coss, 5-foot-7 senior.

For key substitutes, McGlumphy uses Pat Wisman, a 6-foot-5 senior, and Bob Wacker, who stands 6 feet.

The Riders might have been stronger on the boards, too, but Ted Torok, a 6-foot-4, 215-pounder, came up with a knee injury after the first two games and had to have an operation. He was an all-state tackle in football. Torok will be out for the season.

East Liverpool and Martins Ferry have played two common foes in Toronto and New Philly. The Riders defeated Toronto, 74 - 55, and New Philly, 57-44. Meanwhile, the Blue and White score lopsided victories over Toronto twice, but lost a two-point decision to New Philly.

The Potters will return home Saturday for their final engagement at Memorial Auditorium, that is for the regular season. Dover will furnish the opposition.

The local cagers will be seen at Memorial Auditorium at least once in the Sectional Tournament.

Riders Enter Contest With 12-2 Mark

Lucas, Purdue Star Waging Scoring Duel

CHICAGO (AP) — With Ohio State threatening to run away with the Big Ten basketball title and making a sweep of the statistics, there is a hot feud in the individual scoring race between Jerry Lucas and Terry Dischinger.

Ohio State's Lucas, who set a conference record of 48 points against Michigan State last week, trails Purdue's Dischinger by one-tenth of a point—26.8 to 26.7.

Dischinger avoided being overrun by Lucas by pumping in 39 points against Illinois last week. Each hit 18 Monday, Lucas against Northwestern and Dischingr against Indiana.

Trailing them in the scoring battle, according to Big Ten statistics released today, are Walt Bellamy, Indiana, with a 19.7 average; Dave Downey, Illinois, 19.0 and Don Nelson, Iowa, 18.3.

The top - ranked, undefeated Buckeyes, gearing for their game Saturday at second - place Iowa (No. 9 in the AP poll), lead the Big Ten in these departments: Offense—87.7 points a game; defense—average yield of 61.3; rebounding—52.2 average; field goal accuracy—5.06; free throw accuracy—.759.

Iowa is second in defense by holding foes to a 61.7 average.

Lucas is tops in field goal accuracy with a 65.7 percentage and in rebounding with 16.3 a game.

South Siders Beaten, 44-20, In Wrestling

South Side's wrestling team had its string of four victories snapped Wednesday in a 44-20 loss at West Allegheny High School.

The winners took eight of the 13 matches. South Side's record now stands at 4-5 for the season.

Posting victories for the Rams were Rick Seik who won by default in the 133-pound class, Joe Tellish (145) and Joe Barrett (154) each with falls while John Allison captured a one-sided decision in the heavyweight match.

South Side's Wilbert King battled to a draw in the 180 - pound bout.

The Rams return to action Friday night at 7:30 p. m. on the Steubenville Big Red mats. South Side is looking for its second win over Big Red after picking up a 37-17 verdict in an earlier match.

Stanton Star Tallied 365

Spires, Cunningham Keep Pace In Local Point Race

Don (Wilt) Spires and Ken Cunningham, a "David and Goliath" duo in area basketball, appear to have the laurels divided between them rather evenly in their hot individual point race.

Spires, giant 6-foot-6 pivot star, climaxed a brilliant season as a junior last week, scoring 30 points as unbeaten Stanton Local won its 16th straight.

Meanwhile, Cunningham set a new school record of 41 points as rapidly-improving East Liverpool thumped Toronto for its 10th victory.

Spires finished the season with 365 points, a flashy 22.8 average per game. Cunningham, 5-11 guard, has a 319 total and a 22.7 average with four regular season games on tap.

Spires will lead unbeaten Stanton Local against dangerous Yorkville tonight at 7:30 in the Jefferson County Class A tourney in Brilliant. Bob Mills, a fine forward for the Irons, finished the regular season slate with 260 points, a 16.2 average.

Coach Jim Harris' Potters have come a long way since last season when the team won six, lost 13 in the first year of the ELHS product. Besides Cunningham, the Potters also list a strong threat and a strictly 100 per cent performer in Ken Miller, averaging 18.3 per game.

Wellsville senior Bob Kiggans, making a strong assault on the record books, shows 307 for this season and a three-year-total of 921—only 79 short of 1,000.

Highlighting the week's regular season schedule is an appearance of second-ranked Dayton Roosevelt at Salem (14-3) Friday night. The battle has been a sellout for weeks. Don Davidson, an All-Ohio candidate, will lead Salem in its biggest test of the year.

U.S. Skate Officials Eye Prospects After Tragedy

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—America's faint hopes of retaining its dominant position in world and Olympic figure skating competition rested today on the speedy development of some promising young skaters and the unlikely possibility that retired stars would return to competition.

Still stunned by Wednesday's appalling air tragedy which cost the lives of 18 members of the United States team, enroute to Prague for the world championships, prominent American coaches and officials surveyed the prospects for the 1964 Olympics and found little that was encouraging.

"These were the finest skaters in the country—the best three in every division," said Carl W. Gram Jr., secretary of the U. S. Figure Skating Association. "Now we will have to start from the beginning—with our juniors and kids. It's a long road back."

Pierre Brunet, coach of Olympic women's champion Carol Heiss and many other leading skaters, said: "It will be two Olympics before we can hope to have a strong representative team again."

The U. S. has won every individual men's Olympic title since World War II and the 1956 and 1960 women's championships. The winners all have retired or turned professional.

Tim Brown, who escaped the jet plane crash in Brussels because he withdrew after placing third in the U. S. men's championship, revealed Wednesday that he had given up competition because of a heart condition. He is the best surviving male skater. Brown is 22 and although he said he had quit for good, he might return by 1964.

Tenley Albright, the 1956 Olympic women's champion, and Barbara Ann Roles, third in the 1960 Olympics, have retired and aren't likely to return.

Pender Can't Get Together With Fullmer

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Paul Pender, who has signed to defend his version of the world middleweight title against Carmen Basilio, says he's through trying to arrange a match with Gene Fullmer.

"I'm through with him," Paul said. "I don't need him. He needs me. We tried to make a fight and they didn't want it. He'll have to fight me someday, but I'm not going to worry about it."

Fullmer, of West Jordan, Utah, owns the National Boxing Association version of the title. Pender's crown is recognized in New York, Massachusetts and Europe.

It's for that version of the title that Basilio, 33-year-old onion farmer from Chittenango, N.Y., will challenge in the April 22 bout in Boston Garden. The fight will be nationally televised (ABC-TV) with Boston and a 100 mile radius blacked out.

"This clears the fields," Pender said after the contract was signed Wednesday. "I fight Basilio and I've proved all I'll ever have to about being the rightful champ.

Basilio, former middleweight and welterweight champion, is assaying a comeback after a brief retirement.

FIGHT RESULTS

Manila — Bert Somodio, 136, Philippines, knocked out Vicente Rivas, 138, Venezuela, 3.

The Carolina League All-Star game is set for Thursday night, June 29.

Teams In NIT Out Improving Marks

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National Invitation Basketball Tournament, New York's postseason scramble which opens a month from tonight, is shaping up nicely with the teams already named fattening their records and a bundle of contenders sharpening up while awaiting a beckoning bid.

Five of the seven clubs already in the 12-team lineup whipped to victory Wednesday night, topped by tourney-sleeper Memphis State which ballooned its record to a handy 18-2 in an 81-61 rout of Middle Tennessee.

At the same time, Dayton (15-6) rallied to beat Duquesne 70-67, Detroit (14-7) topped Canisius 62-58, Miami of Florida (16-6) spilled Stetson 91-84, and Army (16-5) cuffed Delaware 70-47 to complete a sweep for the five Nit-tabbed teams in action.

Holy Cross and LaSalle—a couple of others looking for berths—won again. The Crusaders (13-4 against college opposition) routed Rhode Island's Yankee Conference leaders 96-72 and LaSalle (13-5) handed Syracuse its 14th loss in 16 games, 81-75.

The five remaining berths in the NIT should pose no serious problems, with at least one spot or maybe two going to the Missouri Valley and the Middle Atlantic conferences, which send their No. 1 club into the NCAA.

The strong MoValley probably will send defending NIT champ Bradley and perhaps Wichita or St. Louis into the NIT if Cincinnati retains the conference title.

Either St. Joseph's (Pa) or Temple, whichever doesn't go to the NCAA, will go to the NIT from the Middle Atlantic. The other berths could be up for grabs from among Niagara (12-3), Seattle, Chicago Loyola, as well as Holy Cross and LaSalle.

Elsewhere Wednesday night seventh-ranked North Carolina beat North Carolina State 62-56 and went into a tie with idle Duke for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Louisville, one of the four at-large teams chosen for the NCAA tourney, set a school record in crushing Ohio U. 117-84 for its 18th win against four losses. Brown pulled an Ivy League upset, beating Yale 67-61 and dropping the Elis 1½ games behind front-running Princeton. Pitt, 11 points behind at the half, rallied to beat Fordham 60-58, and Navy scored 12 straight points just before the end to spill Georgetown (DC) 66-57.

'Appreciation Night' Set March 4 For Lou Venditti

An "Appreciation Night" banquet honoring East Liverpool High School Coach Lou Venditti will be held by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Saturday night, March 4 in the Travelers Hotel.

Plans to honor one of the school's finest football coaches were mapped at the club's meeting Wednesday night in the hotel.

Venditti, varsity coach for the last five years during which the Potters uncorked some of their greatest upsets, will leave soon to become head coach at Canton Lincoln.

The banquet will be held at 6:30 p. m. and the guest list will be limited to 100. Members of the Nonpareil Club will be given first choice of tickets at $2.50 each and are asked to make reservations as soon as possible. The demand already is heavy.

The committee which has completed preliminary plans includes Ed Hester, chairman; Don Burbick and Dick Forzano, dinner arrangements; J. Allen (Red) Montgomery and Harry Couch, tickets; Frank C. Dawson, program arrangements and special guests, and Chuck Cronin, publicity.

In other business conducted by Russell E. Hall, president, the club discussed a long list of possible projects for 1961 and approved a $5,000 budget for the year.

Howard (Hap) Tullis, a trustee, was named chairman of the ways and means committee by vote of members. John Michaels was named chairman of a committee which will arrange special events for home football next season. Ed Adkins was named chairman of a committee to investigate possibilities and legality of the club sponsoring the annual post-season Junior Basketball Tournament.

Ralph Musuraca, who served as president last year, was approved as chairman of a committee for revision of the club by-laws.

The club also gave approval of a plan to present a $5 gift of fruit, candy or books to injured Potter football players.

The list of projects discussed included operating a concession stand under the stadium at Patterson Field, a carnival, an intra-club Boosters basketball game, an all-sports father-son banquet, improvement of the press box at the stadium, slagging of the area under the stadium and illuminating the stadium gate area.

Following the general meeting, Municipal Court Judge Samuel M. Chertoff screened a color movie of highlights of the Pittsburgh Pirates-New York Yankees World Series games of 1960.

Hall announced the club's Board of Trustees will convene March 7 at 7:30 p. m. in the hotel.

Lower Scores Predicted For Tucson Event

By MURRAY SINCLAIR

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Record low scores are predicted for the $20,000 Tucson Open golf tournament that started today.

PGA tournament supervisor Harvey Raynor said the best field to play in the event plus an improved course and perfect golfing weather all indicated low scores.

Raynor has an idea that the 18-hole course record of 61 held by Frank Stranahan and Don January, the 36-hole total of 129 by Herman Kaiser, Joe Campbell and Julius Boros, and Campbell's 54-hole score of 194 will be bettered.

"And," Raynor added, "if the weather holds we could easily have a 72-hole record." This is 263 — 17 under par — set by Lloyd Mangrum.

South African Gary Player sized up the 6,434-yard, par-70, El Rio Golf and Country Club layout with three words, "They'll murder it."

That's what they did in Wednesday's warmup pro-amateur event.

January, the defending champ, breezed home with his record-tieing nine under par 61. The PGA said this was the lowest score in a PGA event since Jim Ferree's 61 in 1958.

The lanky Texan pocketed $250 for the low pro score and another $200 by winning the pro-amateur. January, TV star James Garner and Bill Peyton of Tucson had a best ball of 56 — 14 under par and a record for the event.

First-Comers To Get Boat Docking Permits

LISBON — It will be a case of first-come, first-served for free boat docking spaces at 13 state lakes, including Zepernick Lake near here, according to the Ohio Wildlife Council at Columbus.

Originally it was planned to issue free annual mooring permits for numbered tieup stakes. Zepernick will have one such docking area.

In Little Potters League

Wetzel-Patterson Grabs 6th Grade Championship

Wetzel-Patterson eked out a 16-14 victory over troublesome Chuck Kennedy's to become the Little Potters Sixth Grade League champions Wednesday at the high school gym.

The Cleaners finished with a 6-1 record while George Bright's, an 11-9 winner over Smith & Phillips, and the Police Dept., which dealt American Vit. a 16-6 setback, finished in a deadlock for second with 5-2 marks.

In one other game, Knowles topped Columbiana Finance, 20-16.

The Sixth Grade League Tournament will open Friday at the high school gym. In the opener at 4 p. m., Chuck Kennedy's will meet the league champs —Wetzel-Patterson. The 4:15 game will pit Columbiana Finance against American Vit., while the Police Dept. and Knowles will meet at 5. The finale at 5:15 will send Smith & Phillips against George Bright's.

Gary Barns dropped in a field goal in the last 15 seconds to give Wetzel-Patterson its victory over Kennedy's. Gary Arrington of Kennedy's was practically a one-man team with a sterling 12-point performance. His team had only 14 points.

Gooding and J. Cooper scored four points each to lead the Police Dept. Standley tallied four for the losers.

Phil Talbott scored seven points and led Bright's to a narrow victory over a pesky Smith & Phillips outfit. Bill Bartram dropped in seven for the losing five.

Smith's eight points and a six-point performance from Mike McVay sparked Knowles.

Earl Diddle, one of the smallest players in the loop, took scoring honors for the night with 13 points to top Columbiana Finance.

Gonzaga's Star Top Point-Getter

By The Associated Press

Frank Burgess of Gonzaga, now the eighth major college player to top 2,000 points in a three-year career, remains the No. 1 scorer among big school basketball players.

Now on a 10-day break from basketball, Burgess built his season record to 716 points in 22 games for a 32.5 average and a 1.4 lead over East Tennessee's Tom Chilton, figures from the NCAA Service Bureau show today.

Chilton, who would need to average over 42 points a game in the three games he'll play while Gonzaga and Burgess are idle to take the lead, is second with a 31.1 average on 622 points in 20 games. St. Bonaventure's Tom Stith remains third with a 30.7 average on 613 points in 20 games.

Ohio State's Jerry Lucas, sixth in scoring with 26 points a game, is No. 1 in the nation in rebound recoveries with 19.5 per cent. The Buckeye team is the free throw leader with .783 accuracy.

Glenwood High Fires Director-Grid Coach

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Glenwood High School, north of here, is looking for a new athletic director and head football coach to replace John (Red) Smith, who has been relieved of his duties.

Smith was fired at a special meeting of the Plain Local board Wednesday night. The coach's football teams here had won 18, lost 16, and tied one game. The team had a 4-5 record last season.

O'Ree Makes Grade

BOSTON (AP)—The parents of Willie O'Ree, first Negro to play in the National Hockey League, traveled from Fredericton, N. B., to Montreal to see their son play. O'Ree is a left winger for the Boston Bruins.

New FCC Chairman Watches TV

Television's lack of public consciousness being the favorite target of the influential minority, the new chairman of the Federal Communications Commission exhibits admirable candor, not to mention courage, when he openly admits that he's a devotee of TV Westerns.

Marie Torre

Newton N. Minow, the 34-year - old Chicago attorney who assumes his new FCC post March 1, no doubt would cut a wider swath if he were to say, "Down with the Westerns!"

But a blanket indictment of Westerns would be unrealistic and impracticable in a medium which is as much obliged to entertain as enlighten the public.

That Mr. Minow recognizes this even before he talks office strikes us as an omen of a better TV age.

-:-

FURTHER, Mr. Minow doesn't regard broadcasting as a necessary evil. On the contrary, he calls it "one of our most valuable resources."

He brings to broadcasting a keen respect for its potential and a firm determination to make broadcasters live up to the promises they made in getting their licenses.

"As I see it," he said, "our main function is to take a hard look at a station's performance when its license comes up for renewal every three years. Through spot checking, we hope to find out whether a station is fulfilling its promises.

"I'm told, for example, that some radio stations around the country do nothing but play rock 'n' roll, not even give the news. Well, this is terrible. This is not earning the right to run a station."

WHILE MR. MINOW vows he will do his best to see that there are more wide-open spaces between Westerns and more public affairs than private eyes, he makes it clear that it is not within the province of the FCC to improve television program quality.

"If a station puts on a poor Western, that's none of the government's business," he says. "But if a station puts on Westerns all day, then it is definitely not operating in the public interest.

"The airways belong to the people and they have a right to see that they are being used properly."

Mr. Minow's awareness of broadcasting problems extends to ratings, which he calls a "proper area of concern for the FCC."Noting that only two television receivers in the entire state of Oklahoma are used as a sampling by one rating service, according to information from Sen. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., Mr. Minow said, "My own feeling is that ratings underestimate the taste level of the American public."

-:-

IN THE MONTHS ahead, the new FCC chairman also intends to give high priority to getting educational television off the ground and to making more competitive TV stations available.

Being an inveterate viewer, Mr. Minow has, he says, a personal stake in better television.

"My wife, my three kids and I, we watch television. . . .well, maybe too much. We have several sets in the house."

It is not inconceivable that the networks as well as individual stations will take greater care with their programming now that they know the FCC chairman is watching!

-:-

OF NO SMALL CONCERN to NBC is the desire of Dinah Shore's sponsor to curtail the Sunday schedule to six or eight Dinah specials next season. NBC is said to be holding out for 20. . . .

Playing host to former President Eisenhower in Palm Springs is Freeman Gosden of "Amos 'n' Andy" fame. . .

"A Real Case of Murder," one of three "CBS Reports" documentaries completed by Edward R. Murrow before he became director of the U.S. Information Agency, will be shown March 2. The program documents on actual murder-case in New York City. . . .

Industrialist Henry J. Kaiser, an advocate of pay-TV, has made arrangements with TelePrompter Corp. to install the system in Hawaii Kai, the city he is building near Honolulu where he eventually hopes to house 100,000. . . .

Fredric March, a stranger to TV, will narrate the World War II sequence in "25 Years of Life," the star-studded 90-minute special to be emceed by Bob Hope on March 2.

93,000 Died In Accidents During 1960

CHICAGO (AP) — Ninety-three thousand persons were killed in accidents in the United States last year, more than two-thirds of them in traffic crashes and in the home, the National Safety Council said today.

The number killed was the highest total since 1957 but the death rate was a record low, the council said.

The council estimated the economic loss at $13.4 billion. It covers both fatal and nonfatal accidents, the council said in reporting that more than nine million persons were injured in accidents in 1960. It said 1 of every 19 persons in the nation suffered a disabling injury last year.

Although accidental deaths last year were 1 per cent higher than the 92,080 in 1959, the death rate per 10,000 persons dropped to 51.7, compared to the previous record low of 52.2 in 1959. The council attributed the drop to a 2 per cent increase in population.

Motor vehicle accidents, as in previous years, was the No. 1 killer, with 38,200 deaths, the biggest toll since 1957 and compared to 37,910 in 1959.

Home accidents — poisoning, fires, burns and firearms — ranked second to traffic with 27,500 fatalities, some 500 more than in 1959.

Public accidents not involving motor vehicles took the lives of 16,500 persons, equaling the 1959 toll.

Deaths from work mishaps totaled 13,800, about the same as in 1959. Accidents at work resulted in the loss of 280 million mandays, which the council said was equivalent to an entire year's shutdown of a hypothetical plant employing 1 million workers.

3 Runaway Youngsters Didn't Get Very Far

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Three youngsters—two 14 years old and the other 13—didn't get very far in their plans to run away from home and go by boat from Middletown to visit relatives at Crampton, Ky.

Butler County deputy sheriffs ended the "voyage" Wednesday when they spotted the boys on the Big Miami River. Sheriff James Hixon said the boys were in two stolen boats loaded with provisions stolen from cabins at LeSourdville Lake and along the river.

The cargo included canned goods, clothing, bows and arrows, knives, beer and other articles.

The boys, turned over to Juvenile Court authorities, said they ran away from home Monday and left DeSourdville Lake Wednesday.

23 Miami U. Athletes Placed On Dean's List

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — There are brains as well as brawn among Miami University's athletes.

Twenty - three varsity athletes won places on the dean's list for academic achievements during the first semester of the current school year. A 3.0 (straight B) average is necessary to get on the dean's list.

Eleven of the 23 athletes are football players.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Change Of Pace Needed In Mid-Winter

Monotony is deadly dulling. Too much routine leads to a rut. Ruts lead to boredom. Boredom leads to overeating—if that's your habit pattern.

By Ida Jean Kain

And, of course, the practice of overeating leads to overweight.

By mid-February most of us need a change... February is such a dreary month. It's easy to bog down. Make the effort to change your pace. You might welcome the idea of changing your day around a bit.

Wear a different dress today. Eat something different. If your habit at lunchtime is to look in the refrigerator and fill up on leftovers, today create something new to eat. Why don't you fix a tray and have a leisurely lunch in your favorite spot in the living room?

ONE YOUNG mother with five children creates an "island" in her day with this plan: while preparing lunch for the children, she sets up a tray for herself, including a small treat, such as a lemon drop for her tea.

After she kisses the schoolers goodbye and tucks the nappers in bed, she has a renewing hour all her own.

If you are one of the 23 million women who are employed, you probably eat lunch downtown. For a change, eat at a different place. If you always carry your lunch, plan to eat out a day or two a week.

Perhaps it takes more effort, Well, it's effort, ideas, and action that restores energy. Be willing to make the effort to drill through the rock of inertia...and revive your joie de vivre!

One homemaker writes, "I need to get out of the house more!" Well, most homemakers feel the need to get out more. Plan to meet a friend. It's a good idea to make a date to meet someone you haven't seen for awhile.

Set the date far enough ahead so you will have time to shape up — and slim down. By that plan, you keep your mind in your goal and the doing will be fun. Give yourself a challenge and work toward a goal.

Instead of just trying to hew to a diet, grab hold of some refreshing ideas, change your pattern of thinking. If you tend to stick at home too much, walk to the store this afternoon and select a fresh fruit for dinner dessert. Walk home.

It is true that if you eat to satiety most of the time, you feel heavy, full, and a bit dull.

YOU WILL BE pleasantly surprised at the change that eating lightly can bring. Unexpectedly you'll have a surge of new hope. This serves to quicken energy.

Life should have some spontaneity in it. Occasionally I get a letter from a reader who has written on an impulse. One woman interrupted her house cleaning to declare that she had suddenly made up her mind to pull out of the dumps, slim down, and feel young again! She did it, too!

Act on that impulse. Do something to change your pace. Stir up the life forces within you! Live all the days of your life.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A 40-gallon pot of vegetable soup blew up at city jail Wednesday, spraying the ceiling, walls and floors.

The inmates finally sat down to a soupless lunch—beans, bacon, bread and tea.

35 Attend Class On Safe Boating

Thirty-five attended the first public course on safe boating held Wednesday night at the Foremen's Club on Harvey Ave. by Flotilla 7 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Sam Wolfe, commander, presided. The instructors were George Muth and E. R. Burford of Pittsburgh, assisted by Niles Blackmore, local training officer.

Muth outlined the course, pointing out women are invited to attend. There will be a total of eight lessons, held each Wednesday night at 8 at the club. He said an extra lesson will be held if necessary.

Slides were shown illustrating the various sections of a boat. Blackmore narrated. Other slides were shown of various size boats. A question-and-answer period followed. Muth said Ohio boaters must pay $1 per cylinder for any motor on a boat plying the Ohio River in Pennsylvania. This tax will be discontinued when the Bonner Act goes into effect in 1962.

The class will be held again next Wednesday night. Anyone desiring further information may contact Duke Crytzer at FU. 5-4423.

Leaves $100,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Augustus C. Watts, 75, who became interested in Pilot Dogs, Inc., through love of his own German shepherd, left about $100,000 to the agency to provide dogs for the blind. Watts, who operated a tavern near Reynoldsburg, bequeathed $5,000 to an employe and $1,000 to a nephew, Probate Court records reveal. Watts died last Nov. 19.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Strange Habit Of Children Discussed

Now and then I receive a letter from a mother about her child from three to seven, who pulls out his hair, sometimes eating it. It seems he usually pulls the hair from the same place on the head, leaving a bare spot. In a recent letter, the mother said the youngster, four, had been biting his fingernails but that she "got that stopped" before the hair-pulling began. Then she relates a long period of vain struggle to keep him from pulling out his hair. She did not indicate any effort to work on herself and the whole family to provide him with a calmer, quieter, happier home atmosphere. Apparently she grew more tense as the hair-pulling continued, rendering herself less and less able to solve the problem.

OFTEN THE same conditions which cause one such habit will cause another. Merely to break the habit may not correct the causes back of it. Any correction almost wholly depends on the adult (especially the mother) who deals with the child.

Favorable are more calmness and poise in the mother, less concern about the habit, saying nothing about it, having no stirrings inside about it, helping the child to have more normal interests and activity, and to feel more loved and secure in the family.

Often with the very young child, clipping the hair short is of temporary, though not necessarily permanent aid.

If your child has been pulling out and eating hair, have him medically checked, including x-rays of his stomach and intestine.

THE JOURNAL of Abdominal Surgery, March, 1960, carries an article, "Etiology of Bezoars", by Kent L. Brown, M.D., F.A.C.S., and S. S. Strassman, M. D.

They define a bezoar as "concretion found in the stomach or intestine of certain ruminants and man". They review the literature on bezoars, with special emphasis on hair that has been swallowed. They proposed an explanation of this type of bezoar.

The authors present an x-ray picture of the stomach of a seven-year-old girl, filled with hair with a four-week history of "periodic abdominal pain, anorexia and vomiting".

By surgery, the hair was removed and the patient recovered. Whether or not she resumed hair-eating wasn't reported.

My bulletins, "The Nervous Child" and "Thumb-sucking", may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Johnson, was entered improperly and some items removed. A man aiding Ladutko's lawyer had called Meuti into the investigation, Bedford Heights authorities reported. Robert E. Willeford, mayor of the suburb, suspended Meuti.

2 Of Weirton Sent To Prison

NEW CUMBERLAND — Two young Weirton men were sentenced to 1-to-10 year terms in Moundsville State Penitentiary by Judge Ralph Pryor Wednesday afternoon in Hancock County Circuit Court.

Police charged Rogowski with carrying a .38-caliber revolver. He later confessed to Deputy Ed Frankovitch of the county sheriff's office that he stole the gun from a food market in Weirton.

Truex was fined $25 and costs and received a suspended 30-day jail term on a charge of petty larceny arising from the theft of 70 cents and the revolver from the food market.

Rogowski also pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying an unauthorized weapon.

The store has been in operation since at least 1935.

Morgan has served at Wellsville for 14 years. He previously worked at East Liverpool.

The closing apparently is caused by lack of business.

Morgan said he will be regular employe at East Liverpool.

Looms Quiet, Thousands Idle

Textile Industry Has Key To Massachusetts Jobless

The textile industry is the key to unemployment in Massachusetts. In the following article, last of a series covering a tour of the depressed labor areas of the country, Nate Polowetzky, AP's assistant general business editor, tells the New England story.

By NATE POLOWETZKY

BOSTON (AP)—In tracing the growth and development of depressed areas in Massachusetts, all roads ultimately lead back to one point—the textile industry.

In dozens of communities along the rivers and canals of the bay state, mills that once clothed the nation and provided the bread for tens of thousands of families now stand idle, or have been abandoned, pulled down or converted into warehouses.

The looms are quiet and thousands of textile workers are out of jobs.

While other industries are contributing to the state's current over-all unemployment it is the textile industry, primarily, which has provided chronic joblessness.

Despite the significant growth of new industries, creating new jobs, the out of work textile men, especially the elderly among them, face the prospect of continued unemployment.

Prof. William H. Miernyk, Northeastern University economist and one of the recognized authorities on depressed areas and the New England textile industry says: "A national upswing in the economy will not solve the problem. Some of these people face the tragedy of never going back to work—the older ones particularly."

The unemployment picture in Massachusetts as a whole, however, is a rosy one, compared with such hard hit "depressed area" states as Michigan, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Latest figures show that 148,734 persons were drawing unemployment benefits in the week ended Jan. 28. Thousands of others have exhausted their benefits and one source estimated that 180,000 persons in all were unemployed last month.

There may be more "hidden unemployed." Those people, especially textile workers, who have stopped seeking jobs through hopelessness and are now being taken care of by their children's earnings.

All in all, Massachusetts had an unemployment rate of between 7 and 8 per cent last month, compared with the nationwide figure of some 7 per cent.

(But in Detroit, alone, almost as many persons are out of work as in the entire state of Massachusetts).

Low unemployment in the greater Boston area (comprising nearly half of the state's labor force), calculated at only 4 per cent as of last November, has kept the total unemployment figure down.

It is outside the Boston area, in sections which were once predominately textile, that the hard hit chronic unemployment places are found—with the out of work rate going up to 12 per cent in some communities.

These areas have had relatively high unemployment for at least a decade.

The decline in textiles in Massachusetts and New England began in the 1920s when big plants began moving to the cheaper Southern labor market. This flight to new locations continued in the '30s together with plant liquidations. The war halted the decline but relocation and liquidations began again in the '50s and are still continuing.

Nationwide textile employment in 1948 (a yearly average) was 1,368,000; in December of 1960 it was 915,700. Textile employment in New England in December 1948, was 274,000. In the same month last year it was 108,300.

Thousands of jobs have been permanently eliminated by automation and countless others lost in the liquidation of firms under the tremendous impact of foreign imports.

More than 50 bituminous coal mines in the United States each produce more than one million tons of coal per year, the National Coal Policy Conference reports.

Sewage Plant Airing Slated

NEW CUMBERLAND — Town Council will hold a special meeting Tuesday night with consulting engineers to discuss problems of constructing a sewage disposal system.

New Cumberland has been formally cited by the West Virginia Water Resources Commission for stream pollution due to lack of sewage facilities.

Council will meet with the A. R. Todd Co., consulting engineers, and representatives of the Magnus Co. to determine the status of the sewage project.

Council has encountered difficulties in securing a hearing before the Public Service Commission, which determines rates for water and sewer customers.

All bids received for the sewer system are expected to be rejected at the meeting. Council is expected to re-advertise for new bids once the major problems are cleared in securing rates.

Mayor Albert (Jakie) Fuccy said he has received no official notice of the citation issued by the commission but expects the letter in the mails soon.

New Cumberland received a federal grant last year for construction of sewage facilities, but Council is proceeding slowly with the project to avoid "borrowing more than we can pay back," Mayor Fuccy pointed out.

Hancock Site Pictured In Power Firm's Book

A 265-acre industrial site fronting on the Ohio River at Arroyo, south of Newell, is one of a series pictured and explained in a new brochure prepared by the area development department of the Monongahela Power Co.

The Chamber of Commerce has received a copy of the booklet, called a "Catalog of Industrial Sites" in the area served by the power company in the Ohio Valley and Western Maryland. The publication will be used to interest industries in locating on the sites.

The booklet carries an aerial photo of each tract, accompanied by descriptive text. The cover, in full color, depicts a typical industrial site along the Ohio.

The Monongahela booklet refers to the Hancock County tract as the Arroyo Site, explaining it is six miles south of Chester and fronts 1,800 feet on the river.

The text adds that the site, owned by the power company, "extends back 3,600 feet to West Virginia Route 66, where it rises to hillside land and flattens out to a plateau." The booklet also mentions that the site is served by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

Holy Name Society's Board To Meet Friday

The Executive Board of the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church will meet Friday in the Parochial School assembly room following Stations of the Cross at 7:30 p. m.

Thomas Meadows, president, has appointed James J. McGowan, Joseph Rushton and Joseph O'Hanlon as trustees; James Buchheit to head the planning committee, and Joseph B. Maley, chairman of the sick committee.

The board is comprised of officers, trustees and standing committee chairmen.

Annual Play Set By Chester Class

Rehearsals are being held for the annual Chester High School Junior Class play, "A Rocket In His Pocket," to be presented at the school March 17.

The three-act comedy depicts the experiences of the first male teacher in 10 years at a small high school in the West, whose principal and football coach is a woman and whose students seem to plot against him.

The cast includes Richard Reber, Albert Lyons, Jerry Harris, Susan Wilson, Karen Haught, Marianne Raffa, Steve McHenry, William Haught, Patty Taylor, Sharon Finley, Kenda Roberts, Belva Boyd, Peggy Miller and James LaScola.

The stage crew includes Frank Kell, Jerry Hissam, John Temple, Dave Wright and Larry Swiger, and the usherettes will be Carole Tuttle, Alice Shaw, Mae Allison, Nancy Willison, Danielle Chapko, Beth Sayre, Maxine Woods, Shirley Kenney and Christie Lyle.

Sandra Burns and Carole Wetzel are makeup aides.

Charles Morris, English instructor, is director.

3 County Courts Aired 207 Cases In January

LISBON — Columbiana County's three minor courts handled 207 criminal cases and 75 civil cases during January, according to a report to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

The county treasurer received a total of $2,955.78, of which $1,775.60 was 55 per cent of the fines in State Highway Patrol cases, along with $894.41 in costs and $285.96 in civil care costs during the month.

The state treasurer received $1,356.40 as its 45 per cent of fines.

Sheriff, constables and city police fees amounted to $285.77, the report showed.

Tax Cut Seen Needed If Jobless Stays High

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) —Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., says personal income taxes should be cut by 3 to 4 per cent if unemployment continues high in May.

He told interviewers that if the recession continues to midsummer, then a public works program should be started and corporation taxes should be cut.

'Pressures' Are Cited As Candidate Quits Job

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — John Bricker, Republican candidate for mayor and a second cousin of the one-time U.S. senator from Ohio, has quit his job here because of what he called "unkind pressures" on his employer.

Bricker said Wednesday he quit as sales manager of the Pucci Distributing Co. because "people threatened to take their business from my former employer if he kept me on the job."

People telephoned the threats to Anthony Pucci, operator of the firm, Bricker said.

The candidate said the loss of his job "not only destroys my income, but impedes my campaign because of lack of finances."

4-H Social Planned

LISBON — The Junior Leaders 4-H Club will meet at the Salem Grange tonight at 8 for either a sled riding party, if there is snow, or a square dance with Vince Andrulis calling, according to Joseph V. Burger, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Kent State U. Housing Facilities Nearly Gone

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Housing accommodations for the fall semester at Kent State University are nearly gone, the university has announced.

New applications for women's housing have exceeded the space available, although there is still some space left for male students applying for the first time. Applications are still being accepted in case some who have already applied do not attend in the fall.

Complaints Of Discrimination

Ohio Civil Rights Group Cites Recreation Places

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Civil Rights Commission, in its first annual report, says that of seven major categories of public accommodations surveyed, the most and loudest complaints about discrimination in the state involve places of recreation.

Some discrimination continues in all other categories, the report made clear.

"It exists despite a law declaring it to be illegal," Commission Chairman Richard Guggenheim told newsmen.

The report embraces surveys of places of lodging, of food and beverage services, transportation facilities, personal services, in advertising, and other accommodations, besides places of recreation.

Also included is a critique of the Ohio Public Accommodations Law by Prof. William Van Alstyne, assistant dean of the college of law of Ohio State University, and recommendations for changes to tighten the antidiscrimination statutes.

The commission was established under an act of the 1959 legislature "to prevent and eliminate discrimination in employment against persons because of their race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry."

The commission conducted public hearings in Dayton, Ironton, Columbus, Lima, Lorain, Middletown, Sandusky, Steubenville, Warren, Yellow Springs and Zanesville.

The report said that those most subject to discriminatory treatment were Negroes, dark-skinned Puerto Ricans and Mexican Americans, but there were also instances against those of the Jewish faith, and more rarely again Catholics.

Referring to places of lodging, the report said convention hotels in big cities, in the main, complied with the law. The chief offenders, it said, were moderate-priced hotels on the fringes of downtown areas, and especially motels.

The tendency toward discrimination, the report said, was greater in southern Ohio than in the north, although it occurred in both areas.

Numerous instances of complaints in each category were cited by the commission.

In places of food and beverage services, again moderate - priced, second class restaurants were held to be the chief offenders.

Places of recreation cited for discrimination included roller skating rinks, bowling alleys, dance halls, swimming pools, bathing facilities, golf courses and boating facilities.

Cited was the case of one city were roller skating was made available to Negro patrons two nights each week after midnight. The proprietor was quoted as saying he made this concession to keep Negro youths off the streets.

In advertising, the report cited the sale of trade-discount books to Negroes as well as white residents although the books carried a number of coupons for establishments closed to Negroes.

Concerning other accommodations, the "private club" was cited as a subterfuge to avoid compliance with the antidiscrimination law. In one community, the report said, a neighborhood theater used this device.

Transportation facilities were held to be relatively free of bias in their operation.

In his critique, Van Alstyne said "the doubtful success of the law is attributable both to a number of deficiencies apparent on the face of the statute and to the reserved attitude of the courts."

Welfare Head Reports 2 Additional Children

LISBON—The Columbiana County Welfare Department was assigned two more children during January, according to a report of Robert Bycroft, welfare director, to the State Welfare Department.

Beginning Jan. 1, the department had 193 children, received 18 during the month, released six, leaving a total of 195 as of Feb. 1.

There are 169 in foster homes, 11 with relatives, six in institutions, five in work homes and four with parents.

Missionary-Author Dies

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — The Rev. Bruno Hagspiel, 75, Roman Catholic missionary and author, died Tuesday of cancer.

Lisbon Club Sets Church Visitation

LISBON — The Ruritan Club Tuesday night voted to attend the Methodist Church in a group Feb. 26. The club met at the Christian Church.

Reports were given on the national convention at Washington by Allen Dickey, R. Dale Miller and Don Myers.

The club will visit and assist the Pennyroyal club in Guernsey County and representatives will attend a meeting of the Sandy Valley club Feb. 27.

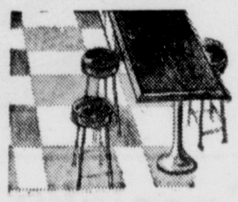

Guests included Ralph Schneider of North Georgetown, lieutenant governor of Zone 4, and the Rev. William Brown and Frank Tuseck of Lisbon.

It was reported there are now 824 clubs with 28,500 members in 18 states. Ohio ranks seventh with 32 clubs and 1,070 members.

Unemployment Levels Off In Lorain County

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—With 10,100 persons out of work in Lorain County—about 14.4 per cent of the labor force—unemployment apparently has leveled off, a Bureau of Unemployment Compensation official reports.

George S. Gerogosian, labor market analyst for the BUC here, said Wednesday the 14.4 per cent figure has held steady more than two weeks. He said there were no indications of any large layoffs pending, and "improved weather has been encouraging in that it means callbacks soon for some construction workers."

PTA At Neville Plans Carnival

The Neville School carnival will be held Feb. 25, it was announced at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday evening.

A Founder's Day program included a mock television show, "Meet the PTA."

Participating were Wilbur Wolf and Mrs. Martha White, teachers; William Savors, principal; Linda Stickler, a student; James Stickler, PTA president, and Ralph Stanley, Floyd Murray and James Pryor, PTA members.

Business was conducted by Stickler. The attendance banner was won by Miss Goldenbelle Kelly's fourth grade and Keith Dunlevy's sixth grade.

Devotions were led by Savors. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Alpha Adkins, Mrs. James Davis and Mrs. Robert Sheville, second grade homeroom mothers.

Next meeting is March 14.

4-H Clubs, Adults Plan Bake Sale For Heart Fund

Six Middleton Township 4-H and adult groups will hold a bake sale Saturday at Lisbon for the benefit of the Heart Fund drive.

The sale of homemade pies, cake, cookies, cupcakes and candy will be held from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. at a storeroom at Park and N. Market Sts., the county headquarters for the Columbiana County Heart Council's campaign.

Participating in the sale will be the Negley Lilly of the Valley 4-H Club, the Negley K-W-H 4-H Boys Club, the Busy Gals and Pals 4-H Club, the Busy Bees and Beavers 4-H Club, the Roger-Ettes 4-H Club and the Rogers School Mothers.

Four films on heart disease will be available for viewing at the storeroom, Sidney Porter, president of the county council, said. They include "Varicose Veins" (5 minutes), "Three Major Causes of Heart Disease" (12 minutes), "Rheumatic Fever Heart Disease" (5 minutes) and "Valiant Heart" (30 minutes).

Load Limit Due Roads In County, Townships

LISBON — Columbiana County Engineer Charles Snyder is awaiting an advisory on posting load limits for county roads for late winter in order to curb heavy traffic on highway surfaces weakened by frosts and thawing.

County commissioners have authorized the engineer to post load limits when he deems it necessary, and have also authorized township trustees to restrict limits on township highways.

Snyder said he is waiting for an advisory and load restriction announcement from the Ohio Highway Department.

Commissioners also authorized the attendance of Carl Stacey, clerk of courts, at a meeting at Columbus Tuesday.

Lake Ports To Handle More Military Goods

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Great Lakes ports will handle more military shipments this year than in 1960, the commander of the Military Sea Transportation Service said on a visit here Wednesday.

Vice Adm. Roy A. Gano predicted about 10,000 more tons of military cargo will be dispatched overseas from lake ports than last year. It would total 85,000 measurement tons, Gano said. About 57,000 tons will move through Toledo.

Health Board To Meet

LISBON — The 1962 budget of the Columbiana County Health Department, along with the program for the county Tuberculosis Clinic —placed under the jurisdiction of the board by the commissioners— will be discussed at a meeting of the board Monday night at 8 at the Courthouse, Dr. C. S. Palmer, health commissioner, said.

The French use pepper, nutmeg, thyme and onion to season their famous Sauce Bechamel.

Order To 'Lie Down' Backfires On Gunmen

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Two gunmen entered a liquor store Wednesday night and ordered the clerk, David Wareham, to lie on the floor.

He did—right on top of the robbery alarm button.

Officers arrived a few minutes later and arrested Robert Lee Jr., 28, and Robert H. Gordon Jr., 32, who were jailed without charge.

Ohio Power's Revenues Up

Ohio Power Co. in 1960 established new records in power sales and revenues, but at the same time paid out the highest amount in its history for the cost of conducting its business, A. N. Prentice of Canton, vice president and general manager of the company, said in a statement issued by the utility's East Liverpool office.

During the year, Ohio Power had gross revenues totaling $131,681,000. Power sales were up 6.1 per cent over the previous year and revenues were $4,638,000 higher than in 1959.

Sales to industrial customers in 1960 showed a 7 per cent increase over the previous year.

Both residential and commercial categories of customers showed similar gains in power purchases during the year.

Ohio Power's major items of expense during 1960 included $26,910,000 for federal state and local taxes; $24,326,000 for wages and salaries, and $23,751,000 for coal burned in the company's power plants for the generation of electric power.

Expenses for the year totaled $108,771,000 compared with $105,890,000 in the previous record year, 1959. The company's net income for 1960 was $22,910,000, up $1,757,000 over the year before.

Red Cross Film Made Available

In an effort to acquaint churches, schools and community groups with some of the background of the American Red Cross, a documentary film has been made available by the North Hancock County Chapter in Newell.

The film, "A Woman Writes A Letter," tells of a letter written by Clara Barton to President Lincoln and the results in terms of help to servicemen of the Civil War.

Persons interested in borrowing the film may call Mrs. Ruth Sprouse, executive secretary of the North Hancock chapter, at EV. 7-1116.

Mrs. Sprouse said there is no charge for the film or for others concerning the work of the Red Cross.

The annual fund campaign of the chapter opens March 1. James E. Elliott of Chester is fund chairman for the Chester, Newell, Pughtown and New Cumberland areas.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Have you any tips for painting walls more efficiently?

A. Whenever painting a wall, start at the top and work down, and cover a NARROW strip from the ceiling to the floor at a time. If you attempt to paint too wide a strip, the paint will dry before you get to your next strip and lap marks are liable to show.

Q. How can I remove creases from velvet?

A. The best way is to have one person hold the velvet tightly while another passes a warm flat-iron over the wrong side. Then brush the nap up again, and it'll look like new.

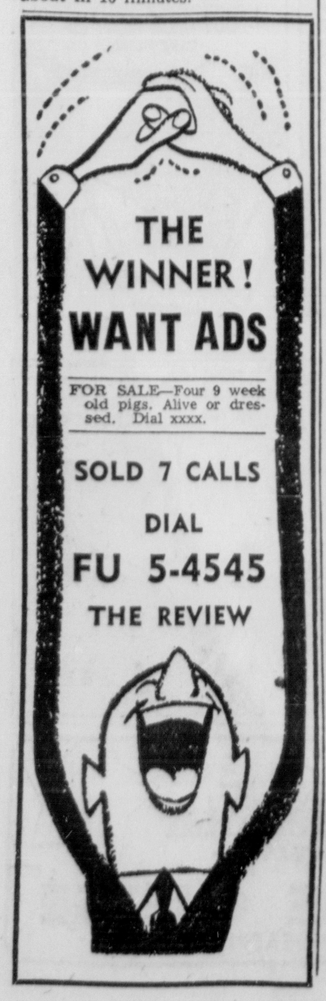

Q. What can I do if a glass stopper has broken off in the neck of a bottle?

A. Hold the neck of the bottle in boiling water for a few minutes, then tap it gently with a wooden block.

Lightning struck the bull's nose ring and down went the animal. But he was only unconscious, Crocker reports, and was up and about in 10 minutes.

PTA Donates Sum Of $150

A donation of $150 was made to the music department at a meeting of the Westgate Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday night.

Miss Hazel McShane, fifth grade teacher, discussed her trip to South America last summer and showed slides.

During business, Clyde McCain, president, reported on the State House Conference on Education held in Columbus in January.

Miss Mildred McGregor, principal, presented a "going-away" gift on behalf of the unit to Mrs. Harold Neff, who is leaving in the near future to reside in Bellaire. She also received a floral centerpiece from the principal. For the past four years, Mrs. Neff has been the accompanist for the unit's talent shows, musical revues and operettas. She also served as chairman of the homeroom mothers.

Mrs. Doris Calhoun, on behalf of the unit, presented a gift of appreciation to Miss McShane.

The Rev. John Call of Wellsville read the Scripture and led the invocation.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dorcas Raber and committee.

A nominating committee will be elected at the meeting March 14.

Hancock Legislators Both Introduce Bills

Hancock County's two legislators — Sen. William Tompos and Delegate Callie Tsapis — each introduced bills in the State Legislature in Charleston Wednesday.

Tompos proposed that volunteer firemen be put under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Miss Tsapis submitted a bill to require an employer with more than three female workers to permit a 12-hour lapse of time between work periods.
